President's Message

Here it is, March, how quickly time is going by. I remember last year about this time when I signed up to be on the board. Not as president, but just a small job. I wanted to get to know more guild members. And look at me now.

Well that time of year is upon us and WE NEED YOU !!!!!!!!!!!

Please take a moment and consider a job on the board. We are a fun group of ladies and would love to have some new blood. There are many jobs to be done. Just ask Suzy Weinbach, she volunteered to be the Chairperson for the 4th of July Quilt Show. Now she needs your help too. I'm sure we can find just the right spot for you.

Last month I was visiting Indianapolis, IN where it was snowing, & cold and freezing. But today as I write this, I am here in San Diego with the sunshine and warmer weather (finally). I think I am too impatient to wait for more warmer weather, so my husband & I are on our way to Hawaii on a cruise to celebrate our 22nd wedding anniversary. Now I guess I will have to look for more quilt stores, darn. I am planning on taking some hand work and maybe even try my hand at the Sashiko I learned in the workshop that I took a couple of months ago. Speaking of workshops please take a look at the next couple of months and find a workshop you might enjoy. We have some great speakers/teachers and we should all take advantage of their knowledge.

Next month is also our FREE for guests so bring those people who might enjoy our guild. We would love to have them.

Retreat

The May retreat is full. I know there are some disappointed people out there. I'm really sorry. Hopefully in the future the retreat center can figure out how we can get the number of participants back to where they were. The retreats are always a lot of fun. It's a nice get-a-way weekend.

It doesn't look like I'll be at the March meeting so if you wish to make a payment toward your total amount please mail it to me.

Library News

Many, Many Thanks to the loyal supporters of our Library's "SHOP IN THE DARK" table.

We earned $57 to immediately spend on more brand new books. If you have any ideas about which books we should add to the library.....PLEASE call or e-mail us.

We checked out 69 library books. If you are not familiar with our Guild Library, please stop by the table and take a look at our selection. We can not bring ALL of our 500+ books to each meeting - so we have devised a system.

We always bring the newest 100 books and do a rotation of the remaining books. You are permitting to check out as many books as you would like.....(the more you take - the happier we are!!) You can always renew a book for another month provided that no one has placed a "Reserve" on that title. There are no fees associated with our Library. We have all of the titles of our books listed on our website. If you want to scroll the titles - just click on library and then click on search.

Our February meeting with Janice (and her husband) was so interesting!! We have her book:

BEAUTY 'N CHECK in our library. If you would like to reserve it, please call or e-mail Yvonne or Holly.

We also have 2 more brand new books available:

FLORAL DIMENSIONS: 20 STUNNING 3D FLOWERS TO MACHINE APPLIQUE

NINE PATCH PANACHE: 40+ NINE-PATCH PROJECTS

Just let us know if you'd like to reserve one of these books - or any other from our library.

See you at the Library Table!

Programs

Our March meeting is going to be terrific. We will have Pam Kay who will provide us with a trunk show of her many quilts. There is still room in the March 12th, Tuesday, workshop being held at Paradise Sewing. The workshop is a "mystery" quilt workshop and the great thing about this mystery - you only need two colors for a completed quilt - 4 3/4 yards background and 3 1/2 yards focus - easy peasy!!!

In April we have Sue Rasmussen who will provide us with a trunk show of her art quilts. There will be an April 7th workshop, Sunday, held at Paradise Sewing. The workshop is prior to the meeting so if you like Sue's samples that are on display at the Programs table - you will want to sign up. You have your choice of making either the Plumeria Flower or the Single Tree Landscape quilt.

The last program of the year will be Leora Raikin. Leora is well-known for her embroidery with beads and fabric and is the owner of African Folklore Embroidery. Some of you may have seen Leora at the Leora Road to California this past January. Leora will be teaching a workshop on Tuesday, May 14th, at the Crazy Nine Patch. If you are interested in the workshop you will need to go onto Leora's website (<http://aflembroidery.com/african-folklore-store.htm>) and let me know what kit you are interested in. We need this information no later than May 5th so that Leora can have the kit pulled and ready for you. This is sure to be an awesome workshop - you won't want to miss it and there is still room to sign up. Space is limited so first-come, first-signed up.

Have a wonderful, blessed day and we will see you all on March 11th.

Programs / Pam Kay

What is a mystery quilt? A quilt pattern that is introduced one step at a time; participants follow the directions without knowing the final result until the last clue is unveiled. It is for the adventurous quilter who wants a fun experience with other quilters. Who knows, perhaps you will learn a new technique or two? In this case it is a two color quilt. Choose two of your favorite colors for a stunning 82" x 98" quilt that is beautiful to own or give as a gift.

Pam is originally from Minnesota and has been sewing since she was 10 years old.

She made her first quilt in 1976 when her first child was born.

Pam has tried her hand at everything from wood-working, pottery making, painting, stamping, paper making, rug braiding, hooking, and Aunt Philly's toothbrush rug, book making, doll making, basket weaving, quilting and everything in between. However, two of her most enduring crafts include all aspects of basket weaving and quilting. Pam has won many awards for her work and has been published in several books and a magazine. In 2002, Pam's husband, Jerry built her a studio to accommodate her quilting and basket weaving projects and classes. Pam is located in La Mesa, CA and has been teaching crafts since 1998.

Opportunity Quilt

Keep selling tickets! I continue to collect several payments per month, but not enough to reach our goal. With pictures available, it should be easier to sell. Also, the quilt is available to display at other guilds (Canyon, Legacy, and Sunshine have been volunteered) or public events. Let's raise funds!
