President's Message

Wow, who knew that history had such interesting and funny details? Thank you Don for a great historical presentation. I loved the history and details you gave to each block design. If Don Beld had been my history teacher I think could probably have stayed awake in my history class.

Next month is our last workshop so make sure you get signed up. There is always good information in these classes.

I am working hard on my last two UFO quilts, hoping to have them done by our June meeting. I know I'm in good company so we all need to just keep sewing and quilting and we can get them done. I know the prizes will be worth it. Looking forward to seeing everyone's completed quilts.

Speaking of June, if you were not at our April guild meeting, it was announced for our June meeting, we are going to try something new and have a little fun. We are having a BAKE SALE along with our pot luck dinner. I can hardly wait to see and taste all the goodies. I can't decide what to make, a cake, cookies or bars, maybe all three. Look for more details in next month's newsletter.

This past month I have been home and able to enjoy a couple of local events. I got to attend El Camino Quilt Show and I was lucky enough to win a raffle basket. They had some great baskets and lots of beautiful quilts. The other event I was able to attend was the play "Quilters" in Coronado. It is great and unusual way to tell a lot of history about the pioneer women and their quilts. There were highs and lows, laughs and tears, and through it all were women making quilt blocks and quilts. If you haven't seen it I would recommend it.

Now onto finishing those UFO Quilts. We need to "get to it"

Keep quilting and have fun,

Becky Moore

Library News

THANKS!!! To each and every one of you who bought $1.00 books to support our library, we are very grateful! We earned $65 more to spend on our last book order for this year. Please let us know if you have any ideas or suggestions for books we should purchase.

Another Great Big Thank YOU to all of the members who have donated books and magazines to us over the course of this past year. Now that we have either incorporated those books or sold them, we would like to remind all of you to think of us when you are doing any house-cleaning in your sewing room. If you have any books that you no longer find useful, please donate them to us. We will either put them in the library or sell them to earn money for new releases. You can bring donations to the meetings or we will be happy to pick them up. We will either have "shop in the dark" again next year - or - the silent auction.

May is the last month that we bring the library books to our regular meeting. Please be sure to call or e-mail us if you have some reserve requests that we can bring to you. All of the library books must be returned at the June Pot Luck/Bake Sale meeting....(we have the summer inventory to face!)

See you at the Library Table,

Yvonne Gagne and Holly Torrez

Programs - Up Next 2013/2014

We made it through another year – hip-hip-hooray!!!

Our last Program of the year will be Cathy Van Bruggen and she will conduct a workshop on May 13, 2014 entitled Garden Walk. Cathy will provide each student with a Turtle and Strawberry block kit ($20.00 fee). The kit is currently part of Cathy's Block-of-the-Month entitled "Garden Walk". There are 5 blocks in the quilt and the students can decide if they would like to make arrangements with Cathy to make the entire quilt or just the one block in class. We need your participation as we only have a few signed up so far. Please take a look at Cathy's website www.cathyvanbruggendesigns.com/ you can view the entire quilt on Cathy's website.

We need your participation – as of April 14th we only had 4 people signed up. Cathy is going to teach the "easy way" of doing needle turn appliqué.

Please remember to checkout our website on a monthly basis (<http://friendshipquilterssd.org/>). The website contains up-to-date information available for your viewing. We even have pictures of our workshop fun!!!

I would like to thank Elaine and Ann for all of their support the past two years. Whenever I needed either one of them, they didn't bat an eye – they just said "Okay, where do you want me?" It's been terrific and they truly have been a blessing.

Opportunity Quilt 2013/2014

As you can see by the results below – we aren't anywhere close to the $3000 we had hoped to be. I want to thank everyone who has taken tickets and sold them or purchased them. It is really helping our guild and that is what counts. If you haven't taken any tickets, there is still plenty of time. Stop by the Opportunity Quilt table and pick up an envelope. We are only asking you to sell $20 – we can all handle that. It just takes a little walking over to the table and obtaining the envelope. Who knows you may be the lucky winner. I know I am keeping my fingers crossed.

Once you have sold your tickets please turn the money in as soon as possible. We would like to keep a monthly running total of what has been sold so all of you can be abreast of our progress. This is where we stand as of April 14, 2014.

There is still room on the signup sheet to take the Opportunity Quilt to a guild of your choice to sell tickets. There are about 15 to choose from and it is only one day or night for a few hours. Your assistance will greatly help the guild.

Any and all ideas are welcome. Take care – see you on the 12th.

Debra, Cookie

Philanthropy

We have officially delivered 128 placemats to Meals-on-Wheels and 15 quilts to Project Linus. That makes a total of 23 quilts delivered this year. We still have till May 15, to turn in more quilts before Camp Erin begins. Each child who attends this camp for children who have lost a close loved one during the last 12 months will receive a quilt. There will be about 100 kids at the camp. They still need about 15 more quilts. If you have a partially made quilt to contribute, please finish it and get it to Ruth or me before the 15th and we will deliver even more quilts to Project Linus.

Several of us met April 9, to make a quilt kits from the strips that you cut at the January meeting. We made good headway on that project and were able to make some plans for the future. We had a good time, too. There's no date for the next meeting yet.

I would say that Friendship has made sizable donations this year and make some lovely quilts for young people and pleasant placement for older folks! Good job, Ladies! Thanks to all of you for sharing your time, talents, and sewing skills on these projects. Ruth and I have been overwhelmed by your willing responses to Philanthropy's calls for help.

Thank you, again.

Charleen and Ruth
