President's Message

Dear Quilters... Happy November!

It is time to talk Turkey. This is the time of the year that we in America celebrate Thanksgiving. We have so much to be thankful for: our families and friends, our country, our health and the list goes on. As quilters we are thankful for so many great quilt shops and fabric opportunities at our fingertips.

This past month we were treated to a wonderful presentation by Bonnie Hunter and her system of "scrap management." Her workshops were inspiring with energy and love for the art of quilting. Looking forward in November we have Julia Zgliniec, a talented artist, designer, appraiser, quiltmaker and instructor. Her lecture on contemporary piecing techniques is sure to be inspiring along with the Workshop using traditional blocks to fashion a contemporary look.

Well, it is time to think about finishing up holiday projects. Remember Christmas is just around the corner.

Happy Quilting,

Suzy Weinbach

Opportunity of the Month

Leah and I would like to thank all of the members of the guild and the guests for making October a successful meeting for the Opportunity of the Month (OM).

I would like to remind all of the members that the OM is a fun fund raiser for the guild. Your purchase of tickets for the drawings goes to benefit the guild. And if you get lucky, then you receive something in exchange. But what do you get? Hopefully something you can use and something you would like to receive. To help us with that part of the drawing prizes, please let us know what you would like to see in the baskets. You can email me at friendgilded@gmail.com. I have created this email for Guild business.

Meetings

Board Meeting

Monday, November 3rd, 6:30pm at Marcia McNelly's home.

Guild Meeting:

2nd Monday of the month

(Sept—June) 7 PM, Garden Road
 Elementary School

I would also like to remind you that you can contribute to the benefit of the guild by donating items for the OM drawing. Do you have a new book that you purchased and now decided you really don't want? Do you have a yard of more of fabric that you will never use? Do you have something else that you think another member would want? Donate it and we can turn it into cash for the guild. We are looking for "stuff" to make the drawing more fun for our members.

We hope to hear from you. With your ideas and our hard work, we can make this a very successful year for the Opportunity of the Month.

Library News

Welcome to all our new members!! A brief review of how the library works:

Friendship Quilters owns over 700 library quilting books of ALL types. We bring over 100 books to each of our meetings - the newest books come to every meeting and the older ones are brought on a rotating basis.

You may check out as many books as you would like every month. Books are due back at the following meeting unless you request a renewal - which would be given if there are no reserves on that book. We accept donations for the library - if we already own the book, we have "shop in the dark" book sales outside our entry doors. November's book sale will be the very popular $1.00 Sale! (Where else can you get a quilt pattern for that price?) You can see all the books we own by going to our website and clicking on the LIBRARY tab.

Thanks to all our members and guests who bought books in October.....we earned $45 toward new books.

We checked out 60 books and took requests for books into January! Please e-mail Yvonne or Holly if you would like to reserve any of our books.

We have some brand new books which have just been added to the library:

100 ANY-SIZE CHRISTMAS BLOCKS Rita Weiss

EASY CHENILLE APPLIQUE Cheryl Malkowski

FANCIFUL QUILTS TO PAPER PIECE Wendy Vosters

FRESH PINEAPPLE POSSIBILITIES Jane Hall

JACK AND JILL QUILTS Rita Wareheim

Philanthropy

Wow! again! We had a fantastic meeting this month AND a fantastic response for Philanthropy. At the October 13th meeting there were 82 placemats turned in all done. Yea! All but two are Christmas themed. With the 74 that I took to Meals-On-Wheels last week, that makes approximately 140 Christmas placemats that we have given them recently. There are still about 10 more placemat kits that have been checked out and are due at the November meeting. Ruth and I will deliver them before Thanksgiving, which gives the staff time to prepare Christmas packages with toiletries and placemats to give to the seniors.

We delivered 15 quilts to Project Linus this week and have more almost ready to deliver. There were 3 finished quilts returned Monday and 4 pieced quilts ready to make into kits. Not only that, but five quilt kits were checked out to be quilted, bound and returned. We have also had some generous contributions of quilt tops made with your own fabrics, and fabrics for our future projects.

Thanks to all of you who have worked so hard and cared enough to contribute to others using your talents, skills and caring. Your response to these projects is overwhelming and says a lot about our dedication to fulfill the philanthropic mission of our guild.

Quilting Blogs

With our guest speaker Bonnie Hunter at the October meeting, we thought it might be a great idea to have a little mention of some of the great quilting blogs that are available to anyone who has access to a computer. If you have any favorites you'd like to share, please send me the link and space permitting, we'll get them in.

A Quilters Delight!

Singer Featherweight Sewing Machine in good working condition, with original case and several attachments.

It has been checked out and the foot pedal replaced.

It was very gently used and the gold is still bright and very much intact.

Un-Finished Object Challenge

Nanu nanu Fellow Friendship Quilters:

Have you been working on your UFO's? I hope so. If you haven't signed up for this grand adventure take the plunge at our November meeting. Make time in your busy schedules for working on your passion of quilt making.

You can sign up for the first time and if you finish the first group of four quilts and want to challenge yourself, you can sign up again. The form for the Challenge is on our web site along with what you need to do to participate.

Have fun and do what we love... QUILTING

Happy Stitching,

Emily Gail Wyett

Programs

We had a great time at the Bonnie Hunter workshops this month—Bonnie was wonderful and inspiring. You can find her scrap user's system on her website.

We have a few spots in Julia Zglinic's workshop in November. Take a look at the project on the website and join us. The sample she sent was a wall hanging or table topper that is not difficult and I think you fast sewers could get it done in a day. Marcia McNelley will be your hostess for that workshop so please e-mail her to be added to the class.

Jan Krentz will have her sample to us by the Christmas potluck—can't wait to see it! Lots of great classes yet to come this year so check out the website and sign-up. Sally Collins is almost full. I am limiting the class to 20 so it is not too crowded in the shop.

Block of the Month Program

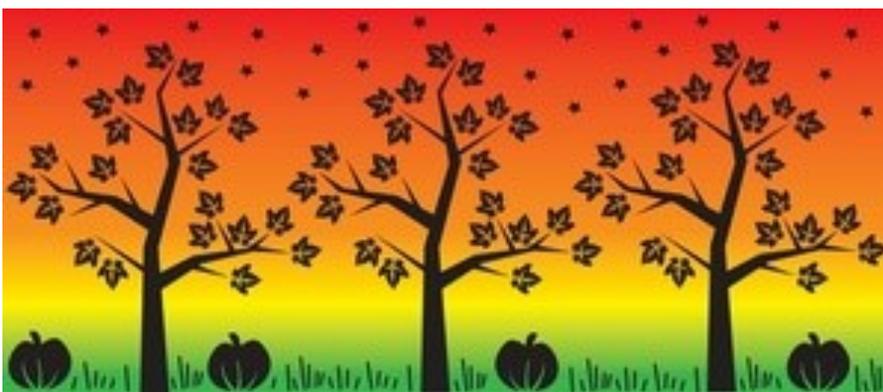

Congratulations to Ruth Jones for winning the Batik blocks. We look forward to seeing her creation.

Friendship Board decided on a $2.00 fee for participation. The money goes into the Guild to finance future Block of the Month projects.

The October "Amish" (lights with black) blocks are to be returned in November and we will have a new winner. I have more of the black fabric to share with the winner, which can be used for sashing and/or borders.

Please remember to send your blocks with a friend if you are unable to attend. You can't win if you don't return your blocks.

President's Challenge

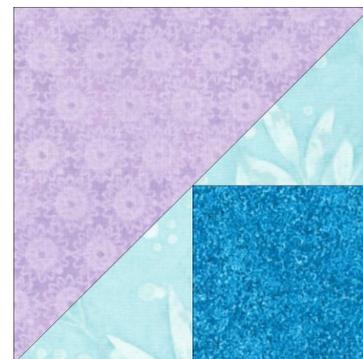

Known as: Mary's Block and Shaded Four Patch

The challenge this year is so simple it would be a challenge not to enter! You will find that this block is found as a component of many other blocks:

Here are the guidelines:

1. Use this "flying goose" block anywhere in your quilt. Using it only once is okay. The block may be any size of your choice. A simple guide is available.
2. No color restrictions. Dig in your scrap bag and get to work or go buy more fabric. If you love it use it. If you don't ...
3. No size restrictions. This is your quilt entry. Make it any size you want. Anything from a pot holder/ mug rug to a king size quilt.
4. The entry must be quilted, bound and have a label.
5. Quilts must be turned in at the June meeting to be enjoyed by all.
6. Sign up by filling out the entry form and fee of $5.*
7. * The fee will go to a selected charity.
8. Voting will be by the membership at the June meeting
9. Ribbons will be awarded to the 3 quilts with the most votes.
10. As there are no size limits on either the quilt or block the following are helpful hints.
11. Have fun! Use appliqué any way if you please. Embellish to your hearts content.

Retreats

By the time you read this, our fall retreat will be over. I'm sure we all had a great time and got lots of projects finished. I know I'm planning to. Our next retreat will be May 1-3, 2015. The cost will be:

Double room $250.00

Single room $350.00

Triple room $200.00

I will start taking sign-ups with deposits at the February. 9, 2015 meeting. Hope you can make it.
