President's Message

Dear Quilter's ,

I cannot believe this is the November newsletter. We all know how busy life becomes as the holidays approach and here they are! So my tip for the day is QUILT. Quilt now and quilt a lot as time is getting short and racing toward 2016. Okay, I said it! For me it is time to complete projects that might be useful during the holidays.

Three years ago I went to my first Friendship Quilter's Retreat. One of my projects was a Christmas batik log cabin and it will be going with me to the next retreat. Cut me some slack as the blocks are made, and it is King size, but it was started maybe 10 years ago. It definitely is on my UFO list. So if you have a few of these projects around get going. This will decrease the temporary guilt trip when you start new quilts in 2016.

New for the Guild is our Facebook page. Be sure and visit and join. There is a beautiful picture of our Opportunity Quilt and our Quilter's in action. By the way we will have postcards available at the meeting of the quilt to help you sell tickets.

Right now my husband and I are on the road spending a few days in Yosemite and Lake Tahoe. Being a quilter we notice color and I can tell you the Aspen trees are full of the richest yellows with a tinge of orange/burgundy. Makes me want to buy more fabric with these shades.

Happy Quilting,

Suzy

Philanthropy

Come one, come all! Stay all day or just awhile! Our big Quilt-a-thon is November 11, at Incarnation Lutheran Church on Espola Road in Poway. We will be piecing lap quilt tops for Project Linus and the Alzheimer's Disease Cooperative. We will provide a salad lunch. Please bring any toppings you would like to add and/or dressings. We will also have an assortment of drinks for all attendees. We have to keep up our strength, you know.

Come to sew! Come for the fun AND for the prizes! Ruth and I have planned a fun day that will include several drawings for gifts that quilters can appreciate. And then there is the fun of fellowship with other quilters while you do a great service to Philanthropy.

See you then.

Charleen and Ruth

Poway Rendezvous

Friendship Quilters at Poway Rendezvous

Friendship Quilters participated in the City of Poway Rendezvous program on October 1, 2, 3 and 4. In addition to the general public, we hosted over 600 fourth graders who attend the Rendezvous at Old Poway Park. The park was alive with reenactments from life in 1840's California with people in character in period costumes, living in period tents, cooking, and working. There was a saloon (checkers instead of poker), a livery, trading post with buffalo hides, and so much more. And, of course, Friendship Quilters had a wonderful display of quilts in Templars Hall. Many of our quilts had children's themes which were enjoyed by the children and adults alike. As part of the program, the fourth graders were asked to describe their favorite quilts in writing, and their descriptions were wonderful! Excellent questions were asked and they took photographs so they could share them with their families. I was touched by their reverence when they spoke of a their own quilts made for them by grandmothers or other relatives.

We had several Guild members on hand to answer questions, interact with the students and general public and demonstrate various quilting techniques. These photographs capture our members hard at work instructing the next generation of quilters. Both the students and the general public learned a lot about quilts and quilting over the days of the Rendezvous.

Thank you to all who helped with the set-up, the program, contributed the beautiful quilts, and gave of your time and talent.

Margaret Byrne

Opportunity of the Month

Thank you all who participated at the October meeting. I hope all that attended liked what we have in the buckets.

Please stop by and let us know if what we are putting out is what you would hope to win.

The winners for October were:

- Jean Nagy
- Bobbie Campbell and
- Jean Nagy

Seems like buying the six tickets for $5 and then putting two tickets in each bucket is not a silly thing to do after all.

Congratulations to our winners and remember, if you want to win, meet us half way, buy a ticket (or six).
