DECEMBER PROGRAM

Our program for the meeting on December 11th will be an enjoyable evening of fellowship and a little bit of business! As usual, December is when we have our Potluck. Bring whatever you like --- a dish to share: casserole, veggie plate, desert, chips or crackers, dips or salsa, cake, cookies or any kind of goodies.

Then there is the "little bit of business". Crafts! This is a two fold opportunity. If you are the creator of craft items to sell – you can rent a table for $10.00 and display your wares for sale. The other side of the coin is having the opportunity to purchase handmade items. Seeing that the holidays are approaching fast you may find that perfect gift or decoration. If you are interested in renting a table, contact me to reserve your space.

Don't forget to dig out that seasonal or holiday quilt to share. It does not matter if it has been shown before. We want to see a wide variety of quilts to inspire us!

As we have not been filling our workshops, I am going to start opening up enrollment to non members as of the day after the meeting date the month prior to the workshop. Example: Sandi Cummings will be here for workshops in January. So... December 11th is the last date that "Members Only Enrollment" will apply for January's workshops. Then January 8th will be the deadline for members only enrollment for Peggy Martin's workshop in February and so on. This will give me the opportunity to try and fill our workshops.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

On behalf of the FQ Board I want to wish everyone a great and merry Christmas! I was going to include peaceful, but the holidays are anything but. With work, endless shopping, parties, baking, cooking, decorating and traveling we have to make time to reflect on what's important in life – family & friends.

FQ is a family of sorts. We gather daily, weekly and monthly in large and small groups. We listen to each others problems, help when we can, and pass our experience to each other freely. We create warm and beautiful quilt items for each other, the less fortunate, the sick, military soldiers and families. We share delicious foods, give money and time so our monthly meetings can be fun. Quilters are just the most friendly, giving and generous people I know.

Regardless of religious persuasion, please say extra prayers for military personnel far away from home during the holidays.

Hope to see everyone safe and sound in January.

to everyone
in whatever form you choose to celebrate!

NEW MEMBERS

WELCOME - WELCOME - WELCOME

On behalf of the Friendship Guild, I would like to welcome the following New Members:

Tonya Alexander - October

Michael Aiello - October

Diana Lott - October

Jacqueline Parada - October

Peggy Quiseng - October

Susan Schutz - November

Additionally, we have had a number of former members rejoin! Welcome back!

On a personal note to the membership, I think you guys are awesome! I try to keep an eye on the New Members and our Guests to make sure someone is showing them around and it is rare for me to have to do this personally. I believe Loretta's bright "New Member" and "Guest" tags help to identify our special attendees, but if each of you were not willing to greet these individuals they would not be coming back to tell me how friendly everyone has been. So kudos to all of our members and keep on greeting the New Members and Guests!

Jenni Morris, New Member Hostess

Dial-Up Friendly Sharing Now On The Web

( <http://friendship.quilt.to/sharingplace.html> )

Guild members with slower speed Internet connections who have experienced problems downloading Sharing pictures in the past should give it another try. The present format for the "Sharing Place" page of our web site has been redesigned to be "dial-up friendly".

At the January meeting, membership dues are reduced to $15 for the remainder of the fiscal year. ### PHILANTHROPY NEWS!

Hello,
 Thanks to our many talented and dedicated quilt philanthropists. In just one month we provided Lois Russell all the baby quilts she needed and then some for the sailors of her neighbor's ship who are becoming fathers while they are deployed. In that same month you finished five small quilts for the Moore's Cancer Center, 16 placemats for the home meals programs, and 9 other quilts. WOW!!!

I will be collecting the stockings for the children at the battered women's shelter and St Claire's home at the December meeting.

Thanksgiving is coming up as I write this (even though it will be passed when you read it) and I want to take this opportunity to let you know how very thankful I am for your generosity and kindness. What a wonderful group you are. And I will add to that--New Years is coming quickly so be thinking about what resolutions you might set for yourself. Some of you do this already, but to the rest, I challenge you to resolve to commit 10 percent of your quilting time to charitable quilting. It is just a little something we can do for those in need, and it truly does bring comfort and peace.

Blessings,
 Karla

STORE NEWS

Thanks to all of you enthusiastic shoppers the store did very well in November. The sales were $115.90 plus $3.00 in New Member Bucks.

I will not have the store in December, but will accept any Quilting related items. I will return with the store in January and hopefully I will sell out. Thanks to all of you for your participation. For those of you who have not checked out the store this year, please stop by, my prices are quite low and very fair.

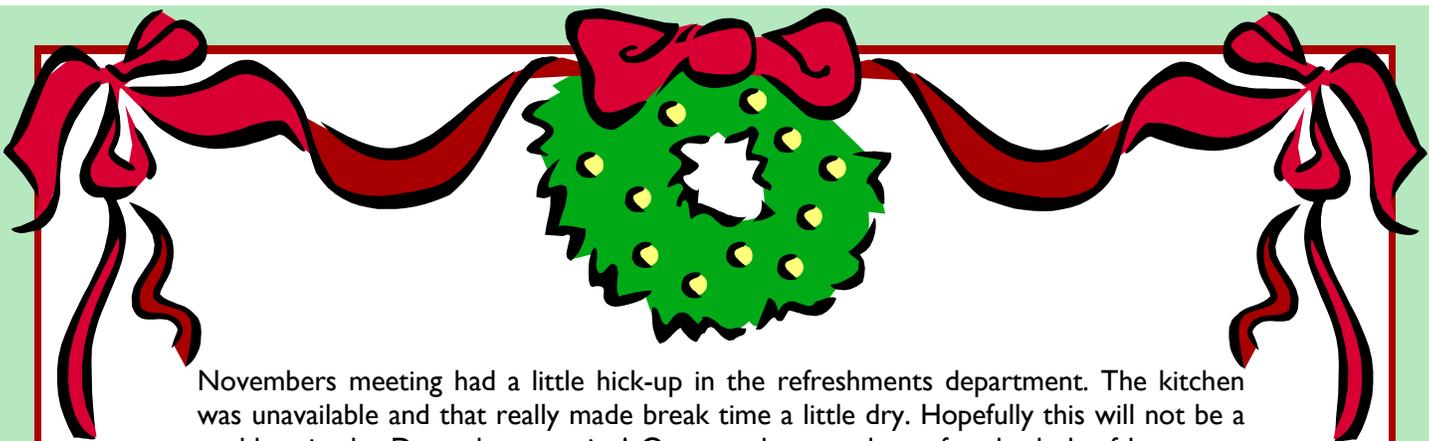

See you in December for the potluck and in January with the store.
Sylvia

OPPORTUNITY OF THE MONTH

Many thanks to the generous donations this month from our guild members. Our guild earned $48.00 in sales for the month of November. Donations of fabric bundles and kits you have never returned to are just right for Opportunity of the Month.

Thanks for your support.
Deb Tait

REFRESHMENTS

Novembers meeting had a little hick-up in the refreshments department. The kitchen was unavailable and that really made break time a little dry. Hopefully this will not be a problem in the December meeting! Our members made up for the lack of beverages with all the delicious treats!

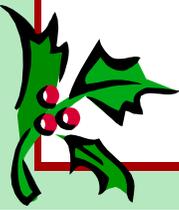

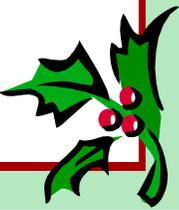

December is our Holiday Potluck! Time to bring your appetites and a dish to share. Here's the guide for this year.

If your name starts with: Please bring:

- A- F Appetizer

TIPS AND TRICKS

Not sure how your quilting will look on the quilt top you've made? Try making a sandwich of the scrap fabrics you used on your top, batting, and backing. Test if the contrast should be lighter or darker, or another color thread might work better, by test quilting on the sandwiched piece.

If you have a clever trick you would like to share with the guild, please email me at sidhemagik@cox.net
Happy quilting!
