February Guild Presentation with Jenny Carr Kinney

We are pleased to welcome Jenny Carr Kinney to our guild on Monday, February 11. Jenny is a graduate of the University of California, Davis in Textile Science. With over thirty years of experience, she has an extensive understanding of fibers and fabrics and is knowledgeable in all construction techniques of traditional quilt making.

Jenny not only holds a California State Teaching Credential in Textiles & Sewing but is also a National Quilting Association Certified Teacher. This represents her commitment to quilting education.

Jenny's work reflects an ongoing interest in the study of antique quilts and construction techniques. Her exhibition and award winning quilts have been inspired by antique traditional patterns; however they were constructed using modern tools and techniques.

Our meeting starts promptly at 7:00 pm at Valley Elementary School in Poway. Come early for some time to socialize. We will learn about quilting history featuring re-piecing the past using reproduction fabrics and today's techniques.

Two workshops will be held at Amidon Quiltworks. 1) Feb. 12, Tuesday, "Re-Piece History c1840 – Variation of an Irish Chain" from 10am-4pm. 2) Feb. 13, Wednesday, "Re-Piece History c1910 – Friendship Star" from 10am-4pm. Call for information about signing-up for one of these workshops.

President's Message

Guild members, would you like to take your guild commitment to the next level? Volunteer for a board position. The nominating committee has begun to fill in the slate of officers for next year and is looking for volunteers. Several positions remain open. Please give me a call at (619) 561-9243 to discuss these opportunities. I can provide job descriptions and put you in touch with board members for additional information.

New members, welcome! It takes a while to navigate around the guild and its various activities. Please don't hesitate to ask for guidance from me or from any of the officers or members. We all want you to fully experience what it means to be a member of Friendship.

Members, don't miss out on the 4th annual San Diego Cruisin' Quilters Shop Hop in March. Be sure to stop in and have your passport stamped at all our local quilt shops. Show your appreciation to the shops that appreciate us!

Debbie Keener

Retreats

For all the new members, our guild coordinates a retreat a couple of times a year at the Vina De Lestonnac retreat center in Temecula. It is a very nice place out in the wine country. There are no phones, t.v.'s, or kids. Most rooms are for two people but there are some private rooms too (for an additional fee). Most meals are provided.

At the February meeting I'll be taking sign-ups and deposits for the May 2-4, 2008 retreat. The deposit is $25.00 and the total is $195.00 for a shared room and $265.00 for a private room. You are welcome to pay the entire amount at sign-up. We have reserved 26 spots but being that the retreats are so much fun you may want to get to the meeting early to sign up and reserve your spot. If you absolutely can't make it to the meeting but you really want to go to the retreat please call me at 858-722-3018.

If you can't make it to this retreat, try for the next one. It will be Nov. 7-9, 2008. Hope to see you there.

Opportunity of the Month

LeeMary Heath won the Hawaiian patterns book, and Mary Rountree the patchwork vest.

Thank you, ladies, for your support!

Rebecca Lighthill

Congratulations to Susan Axelrod, whose quilt "Star Struck" won a second place ribbon in the Traditional Pieced Wallhanging category in Road to California. And congratulations to all our talented guild members with entries in Road this year!

Tips and Tricks

As we begin the new year, I find myself wanting to finish up anything from the past year so that I can begin anew. That makes me think about binding, the final thing we do to finish our quilts.

Binding can seem like an inconsequential part of quilt making, at least as far as design goes. However, the visual impact binding has on a finished quilt is more important than we might first suppose. It is a big part of framing the quilt, and is integral to the artistic quality of the quilt's design.

Color can make or break the appeal of a quilt, as you know, and that includes the color of the binding. Choosing a color that relates to a color you want to draw attention to in the quilt is one option. The depth of color is important to defining the edge of the quilt, also, or you might want the color the same as the border, so that it does not distract from the design. You can use solid color fabric, or sometimes using a printed fabric can create interesting effects when folded into thin strips.

I usually take a strip of fabric I am considering for the binding and fold it in half, then lay it beneath the edge of the quilt with about 1/2 an inch exposed to audition it.

Some quilters hate sewing on the binding, but I find it meditative and satisfying to sew the final stitches on the quilt by hand. Take the time to enjoy this practical but artistic part of quilt making

Happy quilting.

Auction News

Please mark your calendars! Friendship Quilter's Quilt Auction will be held at Poway Community Center on October 11th, 2008. This is our first undertaking on our own of this magnitude and we ask that everyone pitch in to make it a success. Here are some of the things you can do to help.

- Send us your ideas
- Join the auction committee and assist with planning and preparation
- Donate completed quilts to be auctioned
- Volunteer to help out on auction day

Not sure what to do? Talk to the committee, chaired by Candice Dalton. We have attended several quilt auctions and can provide guidance as to what quilts have sold well.

We will keep you updated monthly as planning progresses.

Summer Fun

Hi Members,

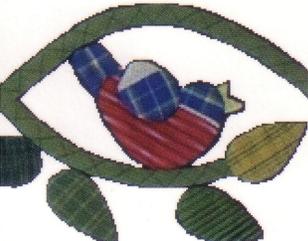

It is not too early to think about the 4th of July Quilt Show in Poway. It is really a charming, country venue during the 4th of July activities, in old town Poway. The place is a lovely barn and people truly enjoy seeing quilts. This year on Friday July 4th 2008, from 10:00a – 4:00p we will show quilts from Friendship Quilters Guild. This is a wonderful opportunity to educate the community to the world of quilting. If you would like submit a quilt, this year's theme is Summer Fun. A theme really means a title for signage. You can enter any quilt that really is not holiday reference. (i.e. no Halloween quilts). If you would like to sell your quilts, demo a quilting technique, help hang and or take down the quilts, the guild needs your involvement. These quilts should be only five years old or younger. We will have ribbons and prizes for viewer's choice, best hand quilting, best hand appliqué, most humorous, and best machine quilting. We will have the winner's pictures in the fall newsletter.
