February Guild Presentation with Peggy Gelbrich

For over 30 years, Peggy has been quilting and helping others catch the “quilting bug.” Teaching and sharing the art of quilt making is her passion. She has taught quilt making in Alaska, Washington, California, Idaho and Oregon, teaching large guild classes, quilting retreats, quilt shops and small private groups in her home.

Because of her expertise and attention to detail, Peggy has made quilts that have won many awards and been accepted for showing at the Association of Pacific Northwest Quilter’s show in Seattle. Her quilt, “Roses for Travis and Sharon” is pictured in the book, “Rose Sampler Supreme,” by Rosemary Mahkan. She was recently published in Quilter’s Newsletter and Fons and Porter’s Love of Quilting magazines. She has published many patterns.

Peggy loves all types of quilting but traditional quilts are her favorite. Her preferred stitching methods are machine piecing, hand quilting, needle-turn appliqué and crazy quilting. She is accredited to teach the Thimblelady method of hand quilting.

She enjoys the challenge of learning and experimenting with different techniques in the quilt making process, always looking for an easier way to conquer those seemingly difficult patterns.

Originally from Oregon, travels took Peggy to

President’s Message

We had a wonderful guild meeting in February, despite the rain and hail! Thanks to all who braved the weather and benefited from the inspiration in Phyllis Binkley’s lecture and quilts.

Our guild is very appreciative of the Poway Unified School District in that our meetings are held in their facilities at no charge. Yes, we do have to set-up tables and chairs and put them away, but I know many guilds that must pay big bucks for their monthly meeting facilities, draining their treasury. We need and want our funds for our speakers and events, not rent. Having all our meetings at one location would be wonderful; however, due to occasional school events which take priority in the district, our meetings must sometimes be moved to a different school location. This will occur next month so our March 9th meeting will be held at the Garden Road Elementary School Multi-Purpose Room. Be sure to make a note of this and remind your friends.

Are you looking for inspiration, stuck on a project, in a quandary about a particular technique or just “stalled out” because life has gotten in the way?? Well this happens to all of us from time to time and it’s okay. Here are some possible options for getting back into the swing of things:

- Review your favorite quilting books and magazines for inspiration, or to find a quilt setting you’d like to try with those completed quilt blocks that are waiting for you in a box or closet.
- Ask a quilting buddy, or your small sewing group, to help you through your dilemma. You don’t even have to use their ideas, just listen and a solution will come to you.

Ketchikan, Alaska for 22 years with husband Ron and three children, Travis, Ian and Allison. After Alaska, she spent five years in Washington and is now back home in Oregon. The kids are grown now and grandchildren have been added to the Gelbrich family; all the more people to receive and share in this love of quilting.

Program Note: Phyllis Binkley is offering another workshop, on April 4th, 2009 at her home in Hemet, Ca.

- Challenge yourself by trying something new. Maybe a challenge is all you need for inspiration and to get moving again?

- Take your problem to your local quilt shop. There you'll find very knowledgeable ladies who work through their customer's problems every day. You'll probably also find a perfect fabric to use for sashing, borders or quilt backing, too, or at least some "new arrival" fabric or fat quarters to buy.

- Take a refresher class on that technique you need for the project. This means you don't have to commit yourself to an entire project using the technique, just learn and keep it in your personal "tool box" for a future project.

– Come to the guild meetings and special guild events. There is something about listening to guest speakers and just being around other quilters that can get you motivated again.

- When nothing seems to be working...temporarily turn to something else. That's right, just walk away and read a book, take a walk outside, or hunt for the chocolate you have stashed away.

I hope one of these possible solutions will work for you. We want you back into quilting very soon! See you in March at Garden Road Elementary School.

Susan Axelrod, President

Philanthropy

Last month we displayed many quilts that were made or finished at the January 19th work-day. Thanks so much for all your support. The "Snowball Quilt" was shown in February. We still have kits to make and quilts to finish. Don't forget that the Philanthropy Challenge quilts are due in April. Two have been turned in so far.

We received from guild members: 2 quilt tops, 3 quilts, 1 flannel baby blanket, 28 placemats (11 were made by SDCE Emeritus Students and will be donated in their name) to Meals on Wheels.

Donated in February: 1 baby flannel blanket to Palomar Hospital, 1 quilt to Quilts of Valor in Long Beach, 5 quilts to Rady Children's Hospital, 9 quilts to Veterans Hospital, 4 quilts to PLC in appreciation of using the fellowship hall for the January workday.

Tips and Tricks

If you prewash your fabrics by machine, you have probably suffered through the tangle of excess threads that sometimes pull away from the cut edges. Try this trick to help cut down on this problem - open the cut of fabric out flat and snip a small (1/2") triangle from each corner. Wash as usual, and prepare to be pleasantly surprised at the lack of tangled threads.

Retreat

As anticipated, we had a lot sign up for the May retreat in Temecula. We have just 3 spots left. If you are interested please call me ASAP at 858-722-3018 to to reserve your spot. (I will also need a deposit check for $25.00). The dates are May 15 - 17th and the total cost is $200.00 for a shared room or $270.00 for a private room. If you're a new member, it's a great way to get to know some of the guild members. If you don't have a roommate lined up don't worry. You'll get matched up with someone when you get there.

For all of you that did get signed up, there will be a block challenge again so please see me at the next meeting to receive your packet.

Library News

Please consider donating a book to our library this year. We need books that have been published within the past two years to keep our library current for our members. On average we lend out almost 40 books at each meeting. You can request any book from our library by calling or e-mailing Yvonne Gagne or Holly Torrez with your request; we will bring that book to the next meeting.

We are delighted to report that the FQSD Library has received 17 BIRTHDAY BOOKS as of our February meeting. We are grateful to the following members who have donated books:

Getting to Know You (submitted by Deanna Padilla)

Most of you probably know Rebecca Lighthill as the lovely lady with the friendly smile and infectious laugh who presents the Opportunity of the Month at guild meetings. An avid reader, Rebecca began quilting in the mid nineties after reading 'The Art & Craft of Quilting.' At the time, she had just achieved an associate's degree in architectural drafting at Palomar College. After reading the book on quilting, however, inspiring her to attend both the Visions Quilt Show and San Diego Quilt Show, she says she was so awestruck by the art quilts she saw that she gave up the notion of looking for a job and took up quilting instead. "I had always wanted to become an artist," Rebecca recalls. "Quilting offered the potential to express myself artistically."

Enthusiastic to get started, Rebecca joined the Friendship Guild, attending every workshop available. She admits that since then, she's become more discriminating, focusing on the techniques she enjoys most, especially the creativity of design, nating in an 18" by 24" pink and blue scrappy quilt she still owns. "I purchased several fabrics in an eighth of a yard each, and just followed the picture in the book, which didn't come with much instruction." She laughs as the memory expands, "I did know to use a quarter inch seam allowance, but had no idea how to assemble, quilt the layers, or bind." She ended up hand quilting in the ditch with the old, tried and true, 'poke the needle through to the back and poke around till you find the right place to come back up' method. Works every time.

Rebecca recalls her first attempt at quilting, culmi-

All those workshops have paid off, though, and Rebecca has honed her skills since that first project. In fact, after attending a workshop recently, she completed a quilt implementing the techniques she learned from quilter and author, Jan Krentz. Rebecca is proud to announce her quilt will be featured in the author's new book, which should be on the shelves in February. Isn't that exciting?

Next time you're at the guild meeting, take a moment to drop by the Opportunity of the Month table and say hello to Rebecca. One of the things she says she loves most about her board position is the opportunity offered her to meet other quilters. Take the opportunity to donate a useful item, a dollar to win a prize, or just receive a winning smile from Rebecca. You can't lose!

2 day workshop: April 1st and 2nd 9:00 to 3:30

Instructor: Elizabeth Busch, www.elizabethbusch.com

Location: Visions Art Quilt Gallery and Pat D'Arrigo Art Center at Liberty Station. Class fee: $200 materials fee: ~$10

Learn fabric painting and design techniques from award winning artist Elizabeth Busch. On day one participants will paint with textile paints making fabric to cut up. On day two, you will cut and use the painted work combined with purchased fabric to create two to five small fused collages. Pieces will come to life through discussion about how ideas evolve, letting go of pre-conceived ideas and simply letting it happen. You will get messy, have fun and come away with some small finished pieces, without a sewing machine.

Auction Update

Our major fund raiser is coming up on April 18 and will be held at the Poway Community Park Auditorium (behind the Poway Library). This will be the day of our Live Quilt Auction, Silent Auction, a Raffle Quilt Drawing and door prizes, too. The general public is also invited. All committees are working hard to be sure the planning, organizing, and work is done on time. Here's how you can help:

- Completed Quilt Donations: Even if you didn't previously commit to making a quilt, we want your help. Quilts in all sizes will be accepted. All completed quilts need to be turned in at the March 9th guild meeting. Our goal: 20 more completed quilts!

- Silent Auction Theme Basket Donations: Contact Linda Wilcox at 858-484-9749 gwilcox@san.rr.com to donate "theme basket" items such as gardening tools, seeds, and gloves for a garden lover's basket. Maybe your small sewing group would like to contribute in this way? Items don't have to be in baskets or wrapped. Linda's committee is happy to do that part.

- Volunteers for Auction Day: Please sign up at the next guild meeting to help in some way or contact Susan Axelrod at 760-787-1649 sewsalot@aol.com or Candice Dalton at 858-486-2007 daltongang@gmail.com for more information. Husbands are welcomed, too, for set-up and security.

- Refreshments: We are asking members to donate small, pre-wrapped goodies and bottles of water on the day of the auction. More info on this at the next meeting.

All volunteers will have specific job responsibilities and these will be covered with everyone prior to the auction (probably a volunteers meeting will be held on Wednesday, 4/15 – more info to follow).

Open Board Positions

Soon it will be time for some board and committee members to move on. This means it's time for you to jump in and help out. Members will be voting in May for the new board so it's not too soon to notify me of your desire to lend a hand. I like to plan ahead so if the positions don't fill soon, you may get a phone call asking for your help. It's much easier to step up and do something you want to do than to be asked to do something you're not thrilled about doing. Some of the jobs work best in teams of two, which I have noted below. If you don't know which job would suit you best, just ask. I have job descriptions for each position. Contact me, Susan Axelrod, at 760-787-1649 or sewsalot@aol.com, for more information.
