President's Message

What a fun night we had at our Guild meeting in January. Sharon has some very special gifts. We saw beautiful quilts, heard a fascinating speaker and enjoyed great classes where we all learned several tidbits of interesting information. Now I'm ready for the Trivia/Quilters Pursuit game.

Right now I am in Indiana visiting my 5 ½ year old grandson watching the snow blow all around with a warm? temperature of 16°. I see why this is called quilting weather. Now I just need my sewing machine with me. We will be visiting quilt stores in the area this next week, weather permitting and good road conditions. Of course I have to help support the local economy.

I look to February as a Finish February month. I try to finish at least one quilt with plans to finish them all before I start anything new. That never works but it's worth a shot. It is always nice to hear that many of you also have lots of UFO's (Un Finished Object--the remnants of those quilts we start to make but never seem to finish) in their stash. Please remember to bring those finished quilts for sharing. I love seeing everyone's quilts.

I look forward to the warmer weather when I return and look forward to seeing all of you next month, until then "Happy Quilting".

Chillingly your frozen President,

Becky

Membership

We are inching closer to our goal of 200 members – currently we are at 193 members. In January the Membership Dues were reduced to $15, so be sure to pass this along to those who may want to join. Remember to wear your nametag to the meeting and sign-in at the membership table. See you there.

Susan Axelrod, Ellie Cormier

Membership Chairs

New Members

Welcome Nancy Beed and Susan Schulte! They came to the January meeting and decided to join us for all the fun.

Library News

We have another brand new book in the library:

LOG CABIN QUILTS - THE BASICS & BEYOND

Classics to Contemporary, by Janet Houts

If you would like to reserve this book - or any other - please e-mail

Yvonne ygagne@yahoo.com

or

Holly Hollyt888@sbcglobal.net

We will be having our popular $1.00 book sale at our "Shop in the Dark" table. We have collected quite a few donations for our sale - so please stop by the table and look at these great buys.

Retreat

I will start taking sign-ups for the May 3-4 retreat at the February meeting. For any new members, it is held at the Vina de Lestonnac retreat center in Temecula. The cost is $245.00 for a shared room and $315.00 for a private room. We only have room for 26 participants so come early to get signed up. You also need to leave a deposit of $45.00. If you have any questions call me or come see me at the meeting. Hope you can make it.

Lou Pennock

Retreat Coordinator

Programs

WOW-OH-WOW-OH-WOW!!! Is all I can say about Sharon Schamber. I thought the workshops were awesome as well as the lecture. She was liked so much that we are going to have her back again in January of 2014. We are trying to talk her into doing a workshop on color, needle-turn applique and to bring back her class on images with painting and stitching. Fingers-crossed that we can talk her into the latter mentioned.

Up Next is Janice Ellertson for February. Janice will bring her wearable art trunk show to the lecture. Janice has won numerous awards for her work - you won't want to miss this meeting. We still have room in the February 12th workshop being held at Bits and Pieces. Once you see the quilt in person you will want to sign up for the workshop. To those of you who work (me included) Tuesday, February 12th deserves a sick call in day, don't ya think!!! Only one thing - there is prep work required to get ready for the class - not much - just a lot of scrap pulling - lots and lots of color.

In March we have Pam Kay who will provide us with a trunk show of her many quilts. There is still room in the March 12th, Tuesday, workshop being held at Paradise Sewing. The workshop is a "mystery" quilt workshop and the great thing about this mystery - you only need two colors for a completed quilt - 4 3/4 yards background and 3 1/2 yards focus - easy peasy!!!

For April we have Sue Rasmussen who will provide us with a trunk show of her art quilts. There will be an April 7th workshop, Sunday, held at Paradise Sewing. The workshop is prior to the meeting so if you like Sue's samples that are on display at the Programs table - you will want to sign up. You have your choice of making either the Plumeria Flower or the Single Tree Landscape quilt.

The last program of the year will be Leora Raikin. Leora is well-known for her embroidery with beads and fabric and is the owner of African Folklore Embroidery. Leora will be teaching a workshop on Tuesday, May 14th, at the Crazy Nine Patch. If you are interested in the workshop you will need to go onto Leora's website (<http://aflembroidery.com/african-folklore-store.htm>) and let me know what kit you are interested in. We need this information no later than May 5th so that Leora can have the kit pulled and ready for you. This is sure to be an awesome workshop - you won't want to miss it and there is still room to sign up. Space is limited so first-come, first-signed up.

Have a wonderful, blessed day and we will see you all on February 11th.

Debra Broyles

Programs / Janice Ellertson

Beauty in Check

Beauty 'n Check by Janice Ellertson and Jodel Yover offers you complete paper piecing instructions plus TWENTY-FIVE large block options and FIVE small block options. Best of all, all the designs are on a CD so you can print out as many as you need! Janice and Jodel also introduce you to a whole new way of thinking about paper piecing.... one that doesn't call for peeling off paper and does not leave your quilt as stiff as cardboard! Be sure you sign up for this workshop early, it's going to fill fast.

Meet Janice!

Janice began her sewing journey by making clothing for her Barbie dolls at age 12, then took sewing classes in school. As a teenager, she made her own clothing. Janice began entering wearable art contests about 14 years ago and won a few times before entering the prestigious invitation-only Bernina Fashion Show. Janice Ellertson earned a first place in the Professional Wearable Art section of the Home and Hobby division for her quilted jacket with a mermaid theme. Mark your calendars for the February meeting, you won't want to miss Janice's trunk show.

Date: Tuesday, February 12, 2013

Time: 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Location: Bits and Pieces

Cost: $25 members / $45 non-member

*Book required: Beauty 'n Check, approx. $29.95

Welcome Guests

At each meeting we welcome guests for a $5 fee, or you may bring a guest for free if you (a member) bring your membership card to the sign-in table so we can check off your free guest pass. Also, as in years past, in March we will waive all guest fees. This means you can bring as many guests as you like to the March meeting with no fees. Yay!

In January we had 17 guests! We hope everyone enjoyed the meeting and perhaps some of these guests will join us again or may even become members.

Opportunity Quilt

I hope everybody had a delightful holiday season. Now that we are actually in the year of the drawing (June 10), it should be easier to sell tickets for the quilt. Making it even easier is the beautiful postcard-like pictures we now have. If you already have your packet of tickets, come get a picture to go with it. If you haven't picked up a packet, please do! Payment is not required until the tickets are returned.

The quilt is available for visiting other guilds. If you belong to or even are near another guild, please check with them to see if our quilt would be welcome. We even have the rack to put it on! You can sell your own checked-out tickets, and there are more if needed. Canyon Quilters is spoken for, but I know there are many other guilds in our county! Help spread the beauty.

Philanthropy

Philanthropy had a Cutting-up party in January in preparation for the Sew-a-thon that will be in February. We cut up a lot, but we need to cut up even more. At the Cutting-up party in February will continue to prepare for the Sew-a-thon.

Cutting-up Party

Saturday, February 2nd.

9:00 - 11:00

Hope Campbell's

17446 Matinal Drive, SD 92127

Bring your cutting mat, ruler, and rotary cutter.

After the big production of Christmas stockings, placemats, and quilts in December, it seemed quiet in January. Philanthropy received three machine quilted quilts ready to be bound, one machine-quilted and bound quilt, placemats, quilt tops and a wheel chair bag. Thank you Lisa Bigelow, Jean Nagy, Mary Lewis, Charleen Renne, Pauline Romanowski, and Brenda C. These items will go to Meals on Wheels, St. Clair's Home, Veteran's Hospital, and Rady's Children Hospital.

The Sew-a-thon will be Monday, February 18th, at Bits and Pieces. in Poway, 10:00am to 3:00pm.

Hope Campbell and Ruth O'Neil will bring salad greens. You may bring salad toppings and dressing.

We'll be making quilt tops using the Disappearing Nine-Patch pattern.

As a reminder, the patterns Philanthropy uses for the wheel chair bags and place mats are posted on our website.

Hope and Ruth would like to thank you for all your contributions to Philanthropy.

Quilting Quotes

- A day patched with quilting seldom unravels.
- A quilt is a treasure which follows its owner everywhere.
- Blessed are the Piecemakers.
- Educate a man and you educate an individual - Educate a woman and you educate a family. (Agnus Cripps)
- Friends are like fabric - you can never have enough!
- If there are no Quilting Bees in Heaven I ain't going!
- Old quilters never die; they just go to pieces.
- One gal's trash in another gal's quilt.
- Quilters affect eternity; they can never tell where their influence stops.
- Quilters are always in the right place at the right time.
- The one with the most fabric at the end, WINS!
- There are no national frontiers for quilters.
- There is no wrong time for quilting.
- Thrifty quilters wrap their kid in a quilt and forget the Band-Aid.
- What I make with my hands, I give of my heart.
