President's Message

What a wonderful time of the year! I love the Christmas Season. I am sitting here listening to Christmas music with the tree lights glowing as I write this letter to you. I am sorry I missed our holiday potluck but I know you all had a wonderful time. I would have loved to have shopped at the craft tables of our creative members to help me with my Christmas shopping. Hopefully next year.

I was up in Seattle, WA this past week and was able to visit a few quilt stores (of course) and even got my sister started on her way to making her 1st quilt. But as I shopped I thought about our local stores and wanted to remind you all to make an effort to please help support the shops ,who in turn help support us. They always have great ideas and wonderful suggestions to help us.

The New Year is a time for new beginnings, new quilts, new friends, maybe even a new mini group. Please let us know if you are interested in starting or joining a new mini group. Friends are always welcome.

We have a wonderful 2013 planned, so make sure you come to our meetings to hear our speakers and sign up for the workshops. And of course we always love to see the quilts you share with us.

I will see you at the next meeting on Monday, Jan. 14, 2013. It seems funny writing that date but I better get into practice as the year is approaching fast.

I hope you all have a wonderful holiday season.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year

Membership

Membership

Happy New Year everyone! As we welcome in 2013, we have 188 members and are still working towards our goal of 200. In January the Membership Dues are reduced to $15, making it a great incentive to renew or become a new member. Tell your friends. Remember to wear your nametag to the meeting and sign-in at the membership table. See you there.

Library News

HAPPY NEW YEAR!!!!

The library did not have a SHOP IN THE DARK book sale at the December meeting due to the lack of extra tables.

So - in January we will be doing the popular $2.00 book sale event. Please take a few minutes to look at the table outside the main door by our membership table.

REMINDER: All books that were checked out in November will be due at the January 14 meeting.

We have just ordered five brand new books for our library:

SCRAPPY FIREWORKS QUILTS

QUILT BATIK!

CUDDLE ME QUICK (11 baby quilt designs)

STRING FLING

LOG CABIN QUILTS: CLASSIC TO CONTEMPORARY

If you would like to reserve any of these books (or any other books) - please call or e-mail Yvonne or Holly. Please be sure to send your e-mails to our personal addresses:

Retreat

I hope you're all saving your money so you can come to the next guild retreat. It will be May 3-5, 2013 at Vina de Lestonnac retreat center in Temecula. The cost will be $245.00 for a shared room and $315.00 for a private room. I'll start taking deposits at the February meeting. We have 26 spots available and we've had a full house at the last two retreats. You may want to get to the meeting early to assure your spot, but don't forget, you can't sign up until February.

If you have any questions about the retreat give me a call.

Opportunity Quilt

We have pictures available! I know a picture is worth a thousand words, so it should be much easier to sell tickets with a picture in hand! If you haven't picked up a packet of tickets yet, please make it a New Year resolution to get it at the January meeting. If you have picked up your packet, thank you, and you can come get a picture too.

Road to California: Mark your calendar! The dates of this wonderful show are January 24-27. As of this writing (12/14), I haven't heard whether we got our preferred day to sell tickets, or even got a slot on any day. I think our quilt will really stand out among the other quilts, and hope that even quilters will take a chance on it! However, to sell tickets at this large showcase, we do need to contribute volunteer hours: a total of twenty, in minimum two-hour shifts, at any time during the show, plus the quilt sitters who will actually be selling the tickets (one day only). If you are going, please consider supporting your guild with a couple hours where you get to actually handle the quilts! I will pass a sign-up sheet at the January meeting, or contact me at rlighthill (at) att (dot) net.

Events

Quilt Stories from the Inland Empire

December 6, 2012 through January 27, 2013

This multi-layered exhibit is guest curated by artist and quilter Theresa Polley-Shellcroft and will feature various quilt designs, patterns and techniques by quilters and fiber artists throughout the Inland Empire. Visitors will be treated to personal expressions, stories, traditional techniques and contemporary themes when they come to view the quilts on exhibit. Quilts will range in size, color and shape along with embellishment, applique, style and theme.

For more information about these programs, please contact the museum at (909) 395-2510

Museum of History and Art, Ontario

Philanthropy

Your generosity is amazing! In the past two months more than 20 members donated original quilted items and completed kits for philanthropy. The items included

8 quilts of all sizes, 40 Christmas stockings, 2 wheel chair bags, 20 placemats, 4 table runners, 30 children's chemo triangular head scarves, 1 quilted baby handled changing pad, toiletries, and new stuffed animals.

These items will be donated to Angel Flight West, Life's Choices, Meals-on-Wheels, Rady Children's Hospital, St. Claire's Home, and Veterans Hospital.

This picture shows our placemats with meals ready to be distributed. The fabric with chocolate pieces is one of my favorite. It makes a fun placemat. These are greatly appreciated by the recipients.

The next Cutting Up Party will be:

Saturday, January 5th,

9:00 to 11:00 at Hope Campbell's

17446 Matinal Drive, RB, 92127

Bring your cutting mat, ruler, rotary cutter and scissors. We will be cutting up the Disappearing Nine-Patch pattern kits for the Sew-a-Thon.

The annual Sew-a-Thon will be Monday, February 18 at Bits and Pieces, which is the former Amidon's location on Danielson Court. We'll meet from 10:00 until 3:00. Bring your sewing machine and supplies. Hope Campbell and Ruth O'Neil will bring various salad greens. You may bring salad toppings for all to share.

And once again, it's OK to turn in a Christmas stocking in January.
