Meetings

Board Meeting

Tuesday, Jan. 3rd, 6:30 pm at

Gloria Mauno's home.

Guild Meeting:

2nd Monday of the month

(Sept—June) 7 PM,

President's Message

Wow! here we are at the end of 2016 and the beginning of 2017.

We had a lovely evening at Karla's house on December 12. It was very festive being in a member's home with all the Christmas decorations and good food. Thanks to all who participated.

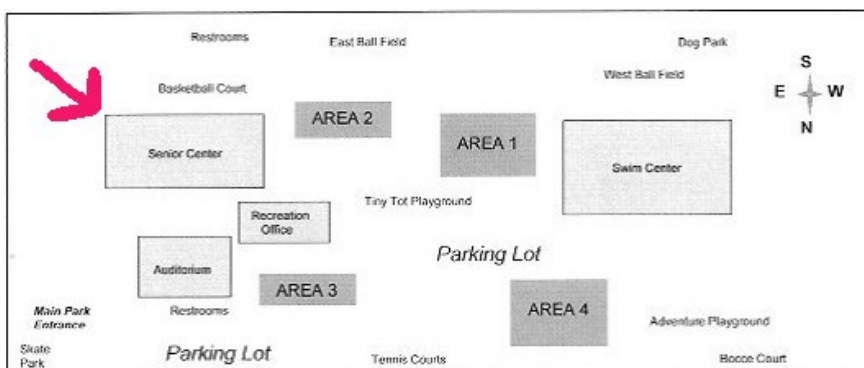

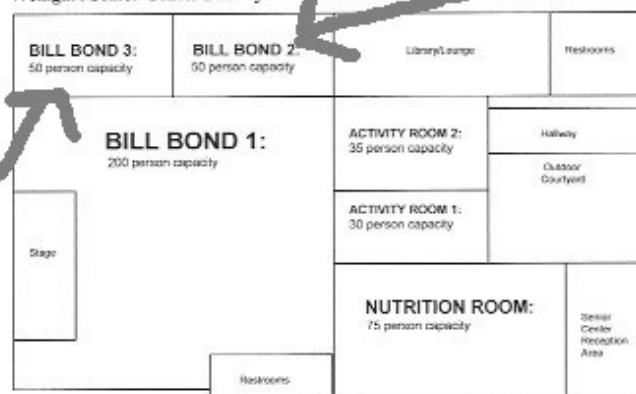

There is so much to look forward to in the new year and so much change for the Guild. We have some interesting speakers lined up for the rest of the year. Be sure to search the speaker list and choose your favorites. It's always refreshing to learn new things and new and better ways to do things. Philanthropy night in February will be another fun night of cutting, organizing, and visiting with quilting friends.

Our Guild is going through lots of changes this year, including trying out new places to meet since losing our Garden Road location. For the next 3 months we will be meeting in the Bill Bonds rooms 2 and 3 in the Senior Center in Community Park at 13094 Civic Center Drive in Poway. Those meetings will be January 9, February 13, and March 13. I think the location is very good for us. It is not an absolutely sure thing yet, because we don't have the insurance endorsement yet, but hopefully it will come soon. We applied for it several weeks ago with a rush order on it. Our fingers are crossed that it will come soon.

Remember, we will meet on January 9, at the regular time at the Poway Senior Center, Bill Bonds Rooms 2 and 3.

Still quilting like crazy,
Charleen

Membership

We now have members 117 members. At our December meeting we had approx. 28 members attend, for a wonderful potluck gathering at Karla's home.

Reminder: if you have a guest, you get one free guest a year (checked off on your card), or they pay $5.00.

Thanks! Michele and Grace

Special Projects

Now that your Christmas project are finished, it's time to get going on your technique challenge items. Hope to see some finished projects at our January meeting.

NOTE: Due to low participation in the 10 inch square exchange, we are discontinuing the fabric exchange in January. If you have batiks from the December exchange, we will do that.

Did You Know?

You may know Michele Cassidy, our Membership Co- Chair. She is always at that front table ready to record attendance, new members, and visitors! I recently spoke to her and here is what she said! "I am made of Grits and Oatmeal. My Mother is a Yupper(from Upper Peninsula MI). My mother was a nurse and she loved to cook and sew, my grandmother was a seamstress by trade. My Father (the Grits part), was born and raised in New Orleans. He was in the Calvary and WWII. He loved golfing and entertaining his friends(and dancing which explains why I can't sit still)! I graduated from Long Beach State University and USD. I am married and have two college age children. Both are students at University of Arizona. Aside from spending time in my sewing room, I belong to three women's golf groups. I also love to read (mysteries, mysteries and more mysteries), hike, and watch Masterpiece Theater."

Programs

KIM FAUTH will be teaching us her “ABCD Quilting” technique at a workshop on Sunday, January 8, and share 20 stunning examples of quilts that put the technique to use at our January 9, 2017 Friendship Quilters’ guild meeting.

Kim has been teaching quilt classes for approximately ten years, but has been quilting for over 30. As a former math teacher she is an expert at explaining material so it makes sense. When she came up with the ABCD Technique, she shared it with her Monday quilting group and they strongly encouraged her to write a book because it was so new and different. Her teaching background is evident throughout the book. The directions are in white, gray and black, with areas of emphasis in blue. Each step is broken down with accurate drawings and hints to make sewing easier. Even though there are only three steps, she has a review page after Step Two so you don’t ruin all your gorgeous fabric. You will also see her fun personality throughout the pages and when she is teaching/lecturing.

Kim promises you can make 32 blocks for this quilt in three hours and then spend the rest of your day (or less) arranging them into layouts that only LOOK complicated. So, start the new year right, with a quick and simple quilt to get your creativity flowing. Treat yourself to this low-intensity, fun workshop and then come back on Monday evening to enjoy Kim’s presentation at our January guild meeting.

Get additional information or sign up for the workshop by contacting Carol Kaplan at caroldkaplan@yahoo.com.

Philanthropy

What a busy time of the year! I hope you have some “down” time to yourself when you can indulge in a little quilting. If not, you can at least look ahead to projects for 2017.

We are planning our annual “Sit and Sew” for Martin Luther King, Jr.’s birthday, Monday, January 16, at 9:30 a.m. at Incarnation Lutheran Church. It is a great time for you YOUNGSTERS who still work full time to take a day off and quilt to your heart’s content. We will be providing lots of strips for those of you who would like to make strip quilts.

If you would rather work on a project of your own, please feel free to do that. The quilts we make will go to Project Linus or to the Alzheimer’s Research Project.

We will plan to have a salad potluck for lunch. Drinks, plates, etc. will be provided.

Bring your machine and tools. Feel free to invite a friend, too!

SAVE THE DATE!! January 16, 2017

Ruth O’Neil & Karla Seyb-Stockton

ByLaws Committee

We now have an official Bylaws Revision Committee composed of five members: Joanne Laviolette, Ann Albertson, Elaine Swatniki, Suzy Weinbach, and Charleen Renne. We plan to have our first meeting early in January. If you have any questions or suggestions, give them to one of the members in writing. You can find the Bylaws on the website. Just click on the title at the bottom of the homepage.

We should have it all done and ready to vote on at the May meeting.

Charleen
