President's Message

We are off to a great start! What a wonderful Guild meeting we had in September. Thank you to those who prepared such great demonstrations, they were all excellent. I heard lots of positive feedback from fellow guild members. Great job ladies! And of course the ice cream sundaes were a tasty treat. Thank you to the board for supplying all the delicious toppings.

The Presidents Challenge was announced, "Things My Mother Told Me" and you can still sign up. The rules are simple, be creative, keep it small, no larger than 24" square, & have FUN! Cost is only $2 and prizes will be awarded. So put those creative thinking hats on and join us for this challenge.

Fall is supposed to be here but our temperatures look more like summer. When you turn the calendar page to October we start thinking of fall leaves, pumpkins and Halloween. We would love to see what your fall quilts look like at our October sharing. Don't forget to bring a friend and reach out to get to know someone new. See everyone on Oct 8. Be creative and enjoy quilting.

1. Skinny Quilts
2. Quilters Color Club
3. Simply Triangles
4. Best of Fons & Porter - Patriotic Quilts
5. 60 Pieced Borders
6. Traditions from Elm Creek
7. Midnight Quilts

If you want to reserve any of these books (or any other books) for September.....just e-mail or call us. PLEASE use our personal e-mail address below. Do not reserve books through the website.

Do you plan to do a fall house-cleaning???? Are you thinking about getting rid of any quilting books????

Please donate your books to us - we will either add them to our library or sell them. All the money we make from the book sales goes directly back into buying brand new releases. We would be happy to take your donations at the meetings.....or call us and we will pick them up.

We will be having one of our famous Shop-In-The-Dark Book Sales - right outside the door. This will be the $3.00 sale - our very best & highest priced books will be on the table. We have collected quite a few over the past few months so please stop and take a look.

See you at the Library Table!

And MORE Library News

Thank you all so much for participating in our "Shop in the Dark" $2.00 Book Sale!!!!

We earned $128.00 which we will be spending next week on new books.

Do you have some ideas or suggestions for the new purchases? Are there certain techniques that you are interested in? Do you have favorite authors? Let us know what you would like to see added to our library!

We currently have over 600 books in our library - not all of them travel to our meetings. We have a permanent archive of the classic books and timeless authors. Please take a look at the Library on our website. You can search books by Title, Author - or just scan everything. When you click on a book title - you will be taken directly to that page on Amazon.com. You can see the cover of the book and read the additional information provided. Sometimes there are even pages inside the book available to look at.

If you want to reserve any book - call or e-mail Holly or Yvonne:

Cutting Up Parties

Cutting up parties will once again be held the first Saturday of each month from 9:00 to 11:00 at Hope Campbell's home.

For those of you who find my house by the palm trees landmark, they are gone. The new neighbors took them out.

October 6 will be the next cutting up party. We will cut out Christmas stockings and placemats. Come for as long as you can. Bring your cutting mat, ruler, and rotary cutter.

Block Exchange

We have nine people signed up for the new "Row Quilt Block Exchange". If you didn't get a chance to sign up at the meeting Monday night, or if you were undecided about what to do, it's not too late! You can sign up in October also. You have a whole month to think about your theme and what pattern you might like to use in your first row. The only difference it will make is that your final quilt will have five rows instead of six.

It will just be a bit smaller. If you are interested, come to the "Block Exchange" table at the next meeting.

There is still a chance to get in on the exchange this month. All you need to do is call or e-mail me and I will e-mail you the directions and information sheet. It is as simple as that. This exchange will be so much fun and I am already looking forward to the final reveal of all the quilts. Our group is so talented and creative I know they will be beautiful.

Happy Quilting!

Retreats

The Nov. 2-4, 2012 retreat is filling up fast. There have been a lot of people who said they plan on attending but have not as yet given me a deposit. If you want to insure that you have a spot for this fun event, I will need a deposit by the Sept. meeting. The cost is $240.00 for a shared room, and $310.00 for a private room. The balance is due by the Oct. meeting. This cost includes your room, 2 meals on Fri., 3 meals on Sat., brunch on Sun. and tip for the retreat center. Come early to the meeting to sign up. See you there.

Opportunity Quilt

Opportunity Quilt

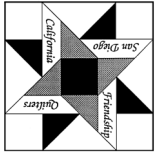

By the time you read this, the San Diego Quilt Show will be over. I'd like to thank the members who gave some of their show time to sell tickets. We made $143 the first day. We had only three "competitors"...other opportunity quilts, all quite different.

Let me correct last month's report, in which I claimed the profits from the one-day July 4th raffle quilt. "It's a Riddle" actually raised about $175 at the 4th of July quilt show in Old Poway Park.

Cookie and I will be back with ticket packets at October's meeting. Come get yours while they're still fresh! Also, you are welcome to take the quilt to other guilds, or anyplace else you think you can sell tickets. Just see me to make arrangements.

I hope to see you at the next guild meeting. I should be easy to spot—in front of the big black, white, and red quilt!
