Meetings

Board Meeting

Monday, October 3, 6:00 pm at

Colleen McCune home.

Guild Meeting:

2nd Monday of the month

(Sept—June) 7 PM, Garden Road Elementary School

President's Message

September's meeting was a great way to start the new Guild year. What fun to see everyone again, enjoy our speaker and refreshments, win some prizes, and see the wonderful quilts you have made during Sharing time. Our guild members are amazingly talented quilt makers. We have our own textile art show at every meeting.

Many thanks to Candy and all her helpers who put together such a lovely Opportunity Quilt and to those of you who answered the call and sold tickets at the San Diego Quilt Show. We sold $300 in opportunity tickets. Candy Mittag, Colleen McCune, Margaret Byrne, and Suzy Weinbach are working on marketing for this year. We will have many opportunities to show the quilt and sell tickets during the year.

October's meeting will feature Louisa Smith and her curves and circles. It looks like her workshop will be a tremendous learning experience. It's a two day workshop, so it requires a time commitment, but I think it will be an outstanding opportunity. I don't know about you, but circles and curves are hard for me. I would like to know better ways to deal with them.

There is so much to do this year. Our Special Projects leaders, Candy and Colleen, have come up with some very interesting projects. We will have a President's challenge, which can be used to count for one of the 4 Special Projects. More information coming this month.

Our October Retreat will be October 28 - 30 at Vina de Lestonnac in Temecula.

Philanthropy has some projects we can do, including the new quilt project for children of military parents on deployments. Ruth and Karla will be sharing more about that soon. Oh, and by the way, remember the Guild library has lots of resources if you are looking for inspiration and techniques.

Thank you for your support and for the outstanding leadership team we have that is creating and managing all our projects for the Guild. Yea!

Happy sewing to all, Charleen

Did You Know?

In an effort to get to know each other better, we are starting this special section of the Patchwork Post to share little bits of information about our members.

Ruth O'Neil is our new Philanthropy Chairperson. We taught school together in Vista for quite a few years. She taught 2nd grade and I taught 3rd. Ruth was a respected leader on our staff at Olive Elementary and I am proud to count her as one of my friends.

Since her retirement she has expanded her involvement in life. Her great passion is the people of Guatemala. She goes there yearly with groups to install fuel-efficient woodburning stoves for indigenous Mayan people. She loves both quilting and playing handbells and does both well. Ruth is a very happy and hopeful person. She feels that she is the most blessed, luckiest person around.

Library News

The new guild year has gotten off to a record breaking start for your Library Table: We checked out 61 books! Thank you all for your support!

Have you thought about starting your Christmas gift projects yet? We will be bringing books to the October meeting that feature Christmas ideas and patterns - plus - we will have a nice selection of Christmas booklets for sale on our SHOP IN THE DARK - SALE TABLE. The October Sale is our most popular - everything is $2.00! Please stop by the table in front of the school and browse through the sale books. We spend all the money we earn from the sale on the purchase of newly published books for our library. If you have any suggestions about which new books we should buy, please let one of us know.

There is NO limit on the number of books you can check out of our library! We encourage you to take as many as you might want to look at - we will take them to your car if you need help!! Just let us know.

You may also renew library books if you need more than one month.

We have just added some excellent donated older books to our library:

APPLIQUE BASICS: FLOWER WREATHS - Karen Kay Buckley

CATS - QUILTS AND CRAFTS - LaVera Langeman

CONTEMPORARY CLASSICS IN PLAIDS & STRIPES - Becky Goldsmith

DRESDEN FLOWER GARDEN - Blanche Young

NEW LOOK AT LOG CABIN QUILTS - Flavin Glover

PATCHWORK PANTRY - Suzette Halferty

PRIZE- WINNING QUILTS - Rita Weiss

If you would like to reserve any of these books - or any other book - just call or e-mail.

See you at the Library Table!

Membership

We now have members 101 members. At our September meeting we had four guests and two new members.

Reminder: if you have a guest, you get one free guest a year (checked off on your card), or they pay $5.00.

Thanks! Michele and Grace

Philanthropy

What a great group of quilters you are! Thank you for turning in so many philanthropy donations at our last meeting. I am so happy to share with you the recipient of one of our quilts.

A 15 year old girl, Victoria, will be flown from San Bernardino airport to Palo Alto where she will be treated for her Hypoplastic Left Heart Syndrome at Lucille Packard Children's Hospital at Stanford. She is VERY nervous about the flight, and will be comforted by one of our quilts!! For further details, go to this link: Referrals for Ministry. What a blessing to bring solace to someone by means of your handiwork.

And guess what! I was just looking up on the internet a synonym for "comfort" to use in the last sentence, and there it said, "a warm quilt!" How about that?!

We will have quite a few Christmas placemat kits ready for you at our next meeting. Given the seasonal nature of these placemats, there is a sense of urgency in getting them done. They go together very quickly. Please consider sewing a set of these before the November meeting.

I mentioned at the meeting that we might want to undertake a short term project of making pillowcases for flood victims in Louisiana. There have been donations of pillows, but we can make pillowcases. If you have never made a pillowcase with French seams, you will be amazed at how professional these look. The concept of rolling the body of the pillowcase into the cuff probably sounds odd, but it works very well. There are many videos on line if that would help. But here are directions: We'd love to have several at our next meeting to send to Louisiana!!

Pressing and Cutting:

Cut a body for the pillowcase - 24 " X WOF (Width of fabric). Cut a flange for the pillowcase - 2" X WOF.

Cut a cuff for the pillowcase - 10 " X WOF.

Construction:

Fold the flange in half creating a 1" WOF strip. Press.

Open the 24" body, full width with right side up.

Lay the flange along the cut edge of the body, matching raw edge.

Lay the cuff fabric, right side down on top of flange. Pin all layers together .

Roll the body fabric up to the pinned edge.

Fold the cuff fabric around the rolled up body. The right side to the cuff will be pinned to the wrong side of the body. You now have a sandwich: cuff, body, flange and cuff.

Sew a 1/4 to 1/2 inch seam.

After stitching the seam, remove the pins.

Find the end of the body and pull it from the inside of the cuff. Press.

Lay pillowcase, wrong sides together with right sides out.

Stitch 1/4 inch seam on one side.

Turn pillowcase wrong side out and stitch seam again to encase original seam. (French seam).

Repeat for other seam.

Turn pillowcase right side out. There should be no raw edges showing.

CHOCOLATE PEANUT BUTTER BUNDT CAKE

CAKE

- 1 standard size chocolate cake mix
- 1 package (3.9 oz. - 4 Serving Size) chocolate pudding - DRY MIX
- 1 cup sour cream
- 1 cup vegetable oil
- 4 eggs
- 1/2 cup warm water
- 1/2 cup peanut butter chips (optional)

PEANUT BUTTER FILLING

- 1 cup creamy peanut butter
- 1/3 cup powdered sugar
- 4 tablespoons butter, melted
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1/8 teaspoon salt

GLAZE (you can make chocolate, peanut butter or both)

For Chocolate Glaze:

- 2/3 cup chopped chocolate (semi-sweet or milk chocolate work well)
- 1/3 cup heavy cream

For Peanut Butter Glaze:

- 2/3 cup peanut butter chips
- 1/3 cup heavy cream

DIRECTIONS

For cake:

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees F.
2. Combine all of the cake ingredients and mix with a mixer until combined. Do not over mix, but make sure all dry ingredients and wet ingredients are well combined. Set aside.
3. In a separate bowl, combine peanut butter, butter, powdered sugar, vanilla and salt and mix well with a mixer.
4. Spoon half of cake batter into a bundt cake pan that has been sprayed with non-stick cooking spray. Spoon peanut butter filling on top of the cake batter. Top with remaining cake batter.
5. Bake for 50-55 minutes or until toothpick inserted into cake comes out clean. Remove from oven and allow to cool on a wire rack. Remove from bundt pan and top with powdered sugar or chocolate and peanut butter glaze if desired.

For glaze(s):

In a large microwave safe bowl (glass works best) combine chopped chocolate (or peanut butter chips) and heavy cream. Microwave for 30 seconds, remove from microwave and stir well. Return to microwave for another 15 seconds. Remove from microwave and whisk together until smooth (stirring will help melt chocolate). If needed, heat for an additional 15 seconds, then whisk until smooth. Spoon or pour over cake.

Challenges

Technique Challenge: Since we've done the UFO Challenge for the last 3 years, we have all gotten lots of things finished and probably still have a small mountain of them left to do. But...in the meantime we've also let new patterns and ideas we want to try gather dust while we finish projects. So this year, we are doing a Technique Challenge to get you to think and try things outside your usual comfort zone or box. Pick four techniques you would like to try from the sign-up sheet and pay $10 like you do for the UFO Challenge. The projects do not have to be large but at least placemat size to prove you tried a new technique. That way if you like it and want to incorporate it into a larger project, then you just keep on working. If you hated the technique and don't want to see it anymore: donate it to Philanthropy and we can make a placemat out of it. Workshops are a great place to try new techniques too! If you sign up for a workshop and show us your sample as one of your picks, we'll count it. If there is a technique that is not on the list, feel free to write it in. Check it out and join us in a new/fun idea!!!

Monthly 10" Square Fabric Exchange: For those who don't want to do the technique challenge, we thought we would do a monthly fabric exchange. There is no cost involved and you get back new fabric squares for what you bring. You do not have to do this every month: if there is a theme you need/want fabric for, participate only in that month or do all of them, it's up to you. Here's what you do: You purchase or dig out of your stash 1 yd. to 1 1/4th yard of fabric. (Some fabrics are not 40" wide anymore so you may need the larger amount to get the correct number of squares.) Wash it gently, iron, and remove the selvage. Cut into 12 (1 dozen) 10"x10" squares. Put the squares and the selvage into a gallon Ziploc bag and label it with your name, phone number and the color/theme for the month. Drop it off at the special projects table and pick up your bag the following month containing all your new squares. Your fabrics can be prints, solids or tone on tones. Make sure they are 100% cotton. We will save the selvages for a couple of months in case someone wants to buy more yardage of their squares. Here are the themes for this year:

October: Fall Colors

November: Blues & Golds (Charger colors) and Greens

December: Batiks

January: Reds & Pinks

February – Florals

March – Purples

April – Patriotic

May – Pastels
