President's Message

Greetings Friendship Quilters and Happy New Year!

I love the holidays but I am also very ready to get back to my more "normal" schedule. A little structure in my life goes a long way toward making me a more calm and collected person. Have you made any resolutions? I am including some thoughts about finishing at least one of my UFO's before beginning more new projects.... a little bit of structure...

As we start the new year there are several things to remember. We have a great speaker schedule coming up. Don't forget to take a look at the events and sign up for the ones you want to take. And of course we have the Jinny Beyer event on tap for February. What a great program that will be. An easy way to support your guild is to participate in these programs.

It seems like we have just gotten rolling with our year but it is already time to start thinking about filling board positions for next year. Please take a moment and consider how you might participate next year. We will soon begin to work on signing up board members in earnest and would love to include new names on the list! We want to continue to meet all our members' needs and there is no better way to influence the direction of the guild than to join the board.

And, as we head into January, our dues for the remainder of the year are dropped to $15.00. Do you have a friend who would like to give the guild a try? Now might be just the time to add him/her to our roles.

One final note for this month. I have heard that some of our members were wondering why we keep the balance in our bank accounts that we do. First – thanks for even looking at the budget – that is why we publish it. Our funds are primarily accrued to pay our speakers. Speakers charge us for both the lecture at our meetings and an additional fee for the workshop day. Sometimes we are paying as much as $900 for these two events. Along with the speaking fees we have transportation and sometimes lodging costs for out-of-town speakers. In addition, according to our bylaws we must have 3 years' worth of operating expenses in reserve. This is to cover any contracts or monetary obligations we have in place in case we would disband. There are also times the balances may be artificially inflated because we have taken in money for an event such as a retreat but have not yet paid the bill. So you can see that the budget is constantly in flux but the money we keep in reserve is necessary. We welcome your inquiries and please, if you have questions, feel free to come to a board meeting or to talk to any board member.

On behalf of the board of Friendship Quilters, we wish everyone the very best for 2011.

Mary Casner

"We will open the book.

It's pages are blank. We are going to put words on them ourselves.

The book is called Opportunity and its first chapter is New Year's Day."

Edith Lovejoy Pierce

Loot Locker Coming Soon

Coming in January The Loot Locker

Because as quilters we love free items and good deals we have decided to open The Loot Locker. There will be a specific place set up for the Loot Locker. You may bring items to our general meeting that you no longer need and either give them away or ask a nominal price. Please mark each item with the price or the word free. The money collected at the sale will go to the Friendship treasury. After the meeting is over any items left in the Loot Locker will need to be picked up. Start looking in those closets for things other people would want. We hope you will enjoy the treasure hunt. Carol Gilbert

Membership

Did you know that our dues are reduced to only $15 at the January through March meetings? My goal when I became Membership Chair was to get 200 members. We have 197 at this time, so we are really close. Will one of your friends be the one to help us make this goal? I hope so!

I'll see you at the January meeting. Remember to wear your name tag and say Hello when you sign in at the Membership Table.

Philanthropy

Monday, January 17, the Federal holiday of Martin Luther King, we will have our annual sew-a-thon at Amidon's Quiltworks from 10:00 to 3:00. Bring salad toppers and Philanthropy will provide the lettuce.

Philanthropy received many wonderful donations from Lou Pennock, Hellen Jeney, Cathy Castleberry, Lee Olson, Debbie Tate, and more quilters whose names I did not capture when items were turned in. Quilters turned in 20 items: Christmas stockings, place mats, quilt tops, and Isolette pieces.

Lois Sonntag delivered to St. Clare's home more than 13 Christmas stockings, 4 children's quilts, and a lap quilt with matching pillow.

The Giraffe Isolette covers are progressing. Peggy Castor is refining the pattern and soon we will have a complete pattern and completed isolette covers.

Thank you for all your donations!

Opportunity Quilt

The Opportunity quilt is coming along nicely. Thanks to all who have helped in its construction. It's turning out beautifully. Linda Card has volunteered to quilt it for the Guild. It will be ready to be bound by the January meeting. You won't see me there, I'll be out and about again. However, Jerre Mayer, who will be standing in for me, will be looking for people to help with the binding at that time. Can't wait to see it finished! Karen McCarty

Library News from Holly and Yvonne

January 2011!! All of the books that were checked out in November, 2010, are now due!

Please be sure to bring back all your library books and check out some new ones. We have added several brand new books to our collection - including one donated by our speaker, Heidi Pridemore. FABRIC JEWELRY - wrapped braided & sewn. A very interesting and unusual book!

Please check out the full library on line and let us know if you have any special requests.

Call or e-mail Yvonne Gagne or Holly Torrez - we will bring your requested books to the meeting.

Thank you to everyone who participated in our big $1.00 Booklet Sale!! We made $63.00 and will promptly spend it on more new books. If you see or hear about a newly published book that would make a good addition to our library - please let us know! We have learned that many old favorite quilt books are re-published from time to time with only basic changes to the cover (content remains the same). Some of the old classics do get updated and revised entirely - we do add those to our library.

See you at the Library Table!! Remember Yvonne's motto: "Check Out At Least Ten Books!!"

Yvonne Gagne - ydgagne@yahoo.com - 858-693-3904

Holly Torrez - Hollyt888@sbcglobal.net - 858-484-8999

Stephanie Danforth, the daughter of founding member, Mary Ellen Yakeley, works with and supports a girls school in Africa. She has asked for scraps of brown fabrics for a self portrait art project she will be doing with the children in February. Additionally, donations of ribbons or bright colored background would be appreciated. Please bring the fabrics to Ann at the January meeting. I will mail the fabrics to her by the end of January. You can find Ann at the Block Exchange table or by email at aalberts@san.rr.com.
