President's Message

Hello Friends

I am actually writing this on Monday night just after our April guild meeting. I thought it was such a great meeting that I am still awake and buzzing.

I was totally awed by the Quilts of Valor that were displayed. The sheer number of quilts was wonderful and each one was a work of art and beauty. Congratulations to all the women who have worked on these quilts. I know you will warm many soldiers both physically and emotionally.

Mary Tabar and Candice Dalton will be coordinating the Fourth of July Quilt show in Poway. They are looking for a few volunteers to help set up the show on the evening of July third, to white glove at the event on July 4th, and to help take down the quilts. In addition, they are hoping that the quilts made for the President's challenge will be entered into the show. If you are making a quilt for the June meeting please consider letting Mary display it on the fourth.

The program for next year's workshops was distributed at the April meeting as well. This was so you can take time this month to review the speaker list and choose the workshops you would like to attend. Sign-ups for the workshops will begin in May and will be open that month only to guild members. In June people from outside the guild will be allowed to begin signing up for their choices.

I am looking forward to seeing all the "Color Extravaganza" quilts which will be displayed at this month's meeting. I am sure no two will be alike and know that we will be treated to a wonderful display.

Hope to see everyone at the May meeting! Mary

Opportunity

By the time you read this, the black & white & red Opportunity Quilt will be assembled and delivered to Linda Card for quilting. I want to thank all the people who helped make this happen: the star makers (working without a pattern), the log cabin stitchers who made the "building blocks," the intrepid assemblers who spent their bonus day (February 29) putting it all together, and Linda for donating her quilting. THANK YOU!! I'm proud of what we have put together, and hope that you will all be proud, too...proud enough to sell tickets!

Library News

THANK YOU FOR SHOPPING IN THE DARK AGAIN!!

We earned another $56.00 to be spent on new books for our library.

And - speaking of new books - we have just added three:

MORE WILLIAM MORRIS APPLIQUE

CUSTOM CURVES - Karen McTavish

QUILTERS ACADEMY - Senior Year

If you would like to reserve one of these books (or any other book) just call or e-mail Yvonne or Holly. Please use our personal e-mail addresses for any reserve item.

We checked out 65 books last night at the meeting and we have a large number of books that are now overdue.

I will be sending e-mails to those of you who have books that are more than 2 months late. We are required to do an inventory this year and it will be very important to have all the books turned back into the library by the June meeting.

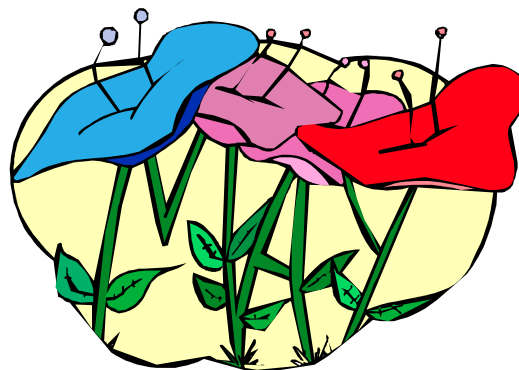

We have created a permanent ARCHIVE LIBRARY for books that we will keep but not transport to meetings. These are books that have significant merit and should not be sold; however, they are not popular enough to get checked out very often. All of the archived books are still listed in the regular library on line. Please call us if you have any questions or suggestions!

See you in May at the Library Table - or - at the Shop In The Dark $3.00 Book Sale!

Philanthropy

Please check out the Philanthropy page on the Friendship Quilters website. Three placemat patterns and two wheel chair patterns are now available to you in PDF. If you would like to make these items with fabric from your stash, but don't have the patterns, now you can! The patterns have been updated with drawings and photographs of the finished products.

Once again the guild members have been generous. We received a large jar of embroidery floss which will be used for attaching the Friendship Quilters Bon Appétit greetings to the Meals on Wheels placemats.

We received a total of 24 items: 16 placemats, 5 finished quilts, 2 quilt tops, and 1 pot holder.

The donations to charities include: 2 quilts to Veterans, 1 quilt and 3 pot holders to St. Claires, 20 placemats and 2 wheel chair bags to Meals on Wheels.

The cutting up party on April 7 was a great success in matching tops with batting and backing. You will now have a great choice of small quilts to machine quilt, as well as the usual placemat kits and wheel chair bags.

We have one more scheduled cutting up party, May 5. We will continue to match tops with batting and backing.

Over the summer I will schedule a cutting up party to cut out Christmas stockings and to make kits. Date and time are TBD.

I appreciate all help and donations of time, fabric and service, as do the recipients of your beautifully quilted items.

Hope Campbell

2012/2013 Programs

We have an awesome line-up of speakers for the September 2012 thru June 2013 year. We have made every effort to get speakers who have not been to Friendship previously and who will teach us new techniques to enable us to grow in our quilting/craft ventures. Information will be available at the May meeting on all of our upcoming speakers and their respective workshops. Sign-up sheets are ready so bring your checkbook and get ready for the new year. A $10.00 deposit (nonrefundable) holds your seat. Once the workshop is paid in full, a supply list is provided. A list of speaker workshops is below - remember space is limited (20 students per workshop) so don't miss out.

Sandi Delman, No Klucks Here, 09/16/2012, Quilter's Paradise, $25.00 Members

Recipe Corner/Banana Pineapple Ice Box pie from Cheryl Wilson

Ingredients:

1 box vanilla wafers (Crushed with rolling pin)
 2 (20 ounce) cans bite sized pineapple drained (I also cut into smaller pieces optional)
 3to 4 bananas cut into bite size slices (squeeze with lemon juice to keep from browning optional)

Either use:

1 lg (16 ounce container of whipping cream, e.g. cool whip)

OR

2 cups heavy whipping cream (and I whip with 1/2 cup confectioners' sugar instead of sugar)
 1tsp vanilla

Directions:

Layer ingredients in 13X9 dish

Cream, vanilla wafers, bananas, pineapple cream save small amount of wafers for top

Cover and place in refrigerator overnight or a couple of hours before serving.

This recipe was my Mother's hence the reference to Ice Box a southern term instead of refrigerator. Other layers could be added such as blueberries, strawberries, or walnuts and graham cracker crumbs instead of vanilla wafers.

Membership

Our membership count is up to 217. We had 118 attendees at our meeting last month, so we missed some of you. Hope to see you in May with your nametag...many of you said you'll be making yourself a nametag.

The memberships all expire on 5/31, so renewals start now at the Sign-In table. If you have no changes to your data, you may bring your dues in person ($25 in check or cash) without filling out a form. For those with changes in address, e-mail, phone, etc., please complete the form provided in this newsletter and bring it with your dues to the May meeting. If you can't make it to the meeting, you may mail your dues and required form to: PO Box 1174, Poway, CA 92074-1174. All Living Treasures (75+ years young) will need to complete the form but your dues are waived. Be sure to pick up your new membership card at the sign-in table as soon as possible. Some quilt shops will give you a discount if you show your guild card. Looking forward to another great guild year! Susan Axelrod and Ellie Cormier/Membership

Retreats

The guild's next retreat is Nov. 2-4, 2012 in Temecula. The cost will be $235.00 for a shared room and $305.00 for a private room. It is limited to 26 participants due to the size of the sewing room. The May retreat was completely full and I am hoping for the same response for the November retreat. I will start taking sign-ups at the June meeting. There is a $35.00 deposit at the time of sign-up. I promise you'll have a great time.
