October Guild Presentation and Workshops With Colleen Wise

At our meeting on Monday, October 8th, Colleen Wise will speak to us on: "Casting Shadows: Creating Depth in Quilts". Haven't you always wanted to know the tricks and techniques to a three-dimensional illusion of depth on a two-dimensional surface? Colleen will show us her quilts and explain how to achieve this look.

The lecture begins at 7:00 pm. Come prepared to enjoy the lecture and be inspired. Visit Colleen's website at www.colleenwise.com for a sneak peek at her quilt galleries.

A two-day workshop is scheduled with Colleen so that we learn and immediately use her illusion of depth techniques.

The workshop is called "Wild Sky" and will be held Sunday, Oct. 07 continuing on Tuesday, Oct. 09 (10am – 4:00pm each day) at Amidon Quiltworks. The fee for members for the two days is $75.

Planets and satellites seem to dance and swirl against a daytime sky. Appliqué these circles by hand or by machine, or fuse them if you prefer. Just be sure to add the secret touch that makes them look three dimensional. Colleen will share her secrets for easy and perfect circles. For that magical 3-D excitement, blocks are set with her perspective setting, enhancing the depth and dimension of this quilt.

(See the supply list at our website: www.friendshipquilterssd.org.)

To enroll: Call Kathy Kudrawec (760-788-5544) or Susan Axelrod (760-787-1649).

Free Quilt Show in Ramona

The Back Country Quilters are putting on their Eight Annual Quilt Show.

On Friday and Saturday, October 19 and 20 at Mountain View Community Church, located at 1191 Meadowlark Way, Ramona (Corner of Hwy. 78 and Ash Streets). The Show hours are 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM both days.

Come spend a fun day in Ramona. October weather is usually perfect for an outing. The Show is free; parking is free. Tickets will be sold for an Opportunity Drawing on a beautiful queen size quilt, a woodsy Log Cabin that would be perfect for Christmas. The drawing will be Saturday before closing. The proceeds of the drawing will go to Ramona worthy causes.

There will be over one hundred quilts beautifully displayed. CDs will be available for sale with all of the quilts pictured. There will be a Certified Quilt Appraiser, Julia Zgliniec, available if you would like to know how much insurance to buy for your prized quilt. The church youth group will be selling delicious snacks.

There will be door prize drawings throughout the day. The Crazy 9 Patch will be selling fabric and quilting supplies. Sew Hut will be on hand selling Bernina machines and accessories. Paradise Sewing will be there to sell Pfaff machines and accessories. Quilter's Cottage of Fallbrook and many other vendors will be there.

The featured Quilter this year will be Eanne Hampe, a quilter and lace maker. In addition to hand quilting, Eanne will be demonstrating bobbin lace making (fascinating to watch), and tatting.

The Back Country Quilters started as an offshoot of the Palomar College Quilting class in Ramona. There are now two classes, one at the Senior Center, and one at Ramona High School in the evening. The teacher, Janet Haas, has organized and encouraged our annual quilt show. The group meets year-round on Tuesday mornings. Everything is accomplished on a volunteer basis. While most members live in Ramona, some come from Poway, Escondido, Santa Ysabel, and Lake Cuyamaca.

Opportunity of the Month

We started out with three opportunities: Pearl Aiello won two patterns; Carolyn Wright the "Quilter's Bible", and a new member, Cheryl (I'm sorry, I've lost my notes with the last name) won the peach wall hanging. We raised $13. I also received donations for future meetings. Donation of items for raffle are welcome...keep them coming! And keep coming to see what we have!
