President's Message

I hope everyone is ready for Halloween and all it's attending details like decorations and lots of trick or treaters. If you are lucky you will have just enough Halloween candy left for a few bites to snack on so it won't be so tempting for a larger quantity. I am currently in Ohio and boy is fall in the air - 42 degrees at noon and the low to be in the high 30's for the next few days. There is a lot more color on the trees than when I was here a month ago and I look forward to Halloween night and lots of craft show

QUILT RETREAT

Our October 2018 Retreat was incredible. We had 20 guild members attend the retreat at Vina de Lestonnac and we all had a wonderful time. As always, the food was fabulous, the weather was great, and meeting up with our fellow quilters was a wonderful treat! Everyone brought various projects to work on, while the beautiful surroundings and location provide a great opportunity for us to get to know one another better and have a good time!

Our next retreat will be May 3, 2019 and we look forward to seeing you there!

shopping while I am here. It's cool enough that quilting will keep me warm while I am working on them.

I want to thank Charleen for running the meetings for me while I am gone. We had a family health emergency and I am in Ohio for an undetermined period of time to help out.

This time of year makes us all think of things that we are grateful for and I hope everyone has a very Happy Thanksgiving!

PHILANTHROPY

Many thanks to those of you who have responded to my email about a Philanthropy Day on November 17th. Jinny Hoffman at Paradise Sewing has generously offered the use of her classroom from 10am to 4pm. We will have lots of jelly rolls available for quick quilt tops that can be made in a day. These quilts will all go to our charities: Project Linus, Elizabeth Hospice, Quilts Beyond Borders, or Carr Fire Victims. This is a wonderful opportunity to invite friends who may not be in the guild to join us. These jelly roll quilts are also great for beginners, even a granddaughter! Please bring a sack lunch. And please call me to let me know you are coming so I can keep you updated.

That's it! I quilt!

OPPORTUNITY OF THE MONTH

We had some great prizes and some great winners last month. Some who won twice. The Door Prizes are free tickets, be sure to stop by the table to make out a ticket with your first and last name. Then be sure to bring an extra dollar or five to buy your raffle tickets. They are $1.00 for one ticket and 6 tickets for $5.00. We will start our silent auction again this month, so be sure to check that out. Your donations are always appreciated. Please go through your sewing stash and bring books, patterns, tools and fabric you don't want anymore and donate them for future prizes.

Your support by these physical donations and/or your monetary donations are always a big help to the guild. Buying tickets each month is a fun way to donate. You might go home with something wonderful.

Remember to bring a Door Prize if your birthday is in the month of October. This is a superior way to help the guild and give someone a little gift. If you forgot last month to bring your gift bag, you can do it this month.

Thanks for all of your support with this program.

Fondly, Sue

LIBRARY NEWS

Our guest speaker in October, Kathryn Pellman, generously donated her book to our library:

BACK ART - ON THE FLIP SIDE

If you are interested in reserving this - or any other - book, please call or e-mail one of us before November 5!!

(Our meeting is one week early.)

We are planning to have the popular $1.00 book sale in our usual "Shop in the Dark" location. Please plan to spend a few minutes looking through the collection of great bargains.

We checked out 64 books at the library table in October!! That is one of our highest totals.

Amazon is showing a number of new quilting books that are being published in the next few months. If you see anything that would be a good addition to our library - please let us know!!

See you at the Library Table,

PROGRAMS

Hi Everyone!

This month we have a fun lecture called "Games this Quilter Plays" by Linda Wagner.

For Linda, quilting was just a fun hobby-then after joining a quilt guild, things got rapidly out of hand. There were so many things to try! In short order she had over 80 UFO's Linda's presentation is full of games that she plays with herself to get motivated to finish things. She will show us dozens of finished projects as proof that games work.

Linda's workshop is "Minis Your Way"

She will be demonstrating how to foundation piece on muslin. No paper piecing experience is necessary. This is a great workshop to bust out the scraps.

Students can choose from the Sampler or Cats in Attic Windows. She will have other patterns for sale as well. We have a copy of the supplies list available on the website or at the Programs desk on Monday Night.

Workshop will be held at Paradise Sewing

Tuesday, Nov. 6, 2018 from 10 am to 4 pm

Cost: $35 member/$45 non-member

+ $10 pattern. Please specify Sampler or Cats.

We will also be doing the salad bar again. Programs will provide the greens and dressing. Bring a topping and/or whatever to share.

Please let me know if you want to sign up for any of our workshops or have any questions.

OPPORTUNITY QUILT

The Opportunity Quilt is FINISHED and it looks fantastic. Thanks to everyone who helped work on it and who volunteered to sell tickets at the San Diego Quilt Show. We have already broken even with our ticket sales! I will have lots of tickets to sell at our November meeting. Tickets also make good holiday gifts--just saying! ;)

I still desperately need a co-chair or committee to help me find events where we can bring our quilt and sell tickets. Working full time, I do not have the availability we need to really show off our quilt and make this a successful fundraiser. It's not a hard job, but it's not a job I can do alone. Please let me know if you are interested!
