OCTOBER BIRTHDAYS

Only two October birthdays this month!

Ruth Jones 10/19

Lina Rao 10/20

—IMPORTANT NOTICE—IT IS VERY DARK IN THE BACK PARKING LOT AT GUILD MEETINGS. EITHER PARK IN FRONT OR BRING A FLASH LIGHT OR USE YOUR FLASHLIGHT ON CELL PHONE. STAY SAFE!

President's Message

Hello Everyone,

I was excited to see so many returning members to our first in-person meeting of the year. I would also like to welcome our new members Roberta Bush, Judy Simeroth, Becky Reding, Sue Deangelo, and Deb Tait.

I hope you all enjoyed Anne Sonner's trunk show and lecture about "Family History Quilts." I truly enjoyed her stories and humor. And it was quite a shock she and my son-in-law are descendants from the same Howland family in Plymouth, MA. As she was speaking, I recognized her story about the Howland that fell off the ship and was rescued. What a small world.

The guild has a busy October. Our first event is the second weekend of October with our Friendship Boutique Craft Fair at Guardian Angels Catholic Church in Santee. We have a 10'x10' space to fill. The third weekend is our Annual October Retreat at Vina de Lestonnac in Temecula. There are still a couple of open spaces if you are interested. It is always a ton of FUN! Our guild meeting in October is all about Tips, Techniques, and Tricks with our Demos and Desserts. Come and learn something new. Because we are so busy we have cancelled all Philanthropy Sit and Sews for October.

CONTINUATION OF PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Has anyone started their "not yet finished quilt inventory" to turn in October's meeting? OH MY- I need to get busy. I have so many unfinished quilts and complete quilt kits that I haven't even started. I truly do not need to start anything new for probably two years. But that wouldn't be any fun. So I continue to sign up for classes and buy new fabric. I am trying to get more organized so I will have more sewing time. I have started to batch cook dinners for the freezer. For those who know me well, I am a restaurant girl. I am hoping this freezer thing will give me more time. Are any of you doing anything to get yourself more organized? They say that being organized frees up your time. I sure hope that is a true statement.

I hope to see everyone at all of our October events. It felt so good to come together again.

Yours in Quilting and FUN!

Laura

PROGRAMS

Our first speaker of the new guild year was Ann Sonner who spoke on her family history quilts at our September meeting. As she researched her genealogy she made quilts about her ancestors. She had many fascinating stories to tell about her family.

We had a great turn out!

The theme of our October 10th meeting is "Demos and Desserts." Four of our talented members are going to set up stations to demonstrate a craft, tool or technique that they have mastered such as the Accuquilt and a cute Christmas ornament. We will split into 4 groups and rotate through the stations and will finish with dessert. Come join us, maybe learn something new and finish with socializing and a treat!

At our November 14th meeting, Susie Scholnik is presenting "Batiks, the History, the Mystery." Susie is a batik specialist who designs batiks, and travels every year to Bali and Java, where she works with the craftsmen who make the beautiful batiks that are sold in the U.S. She has fascinating pictures and facts about the history and process of creating the colors and design that has been handed down for generations.

We traditionally take our speakers to the Brigantine restaurant for dinner at 4pm before the meeting. All members are welcome to join us.

On November 15th Susie will present her Workshop called "A Diamond in the Rough". It will be held at Paradise Sewing, 13242 Poway Road from 10am to 2pm.

You can see more about the workshop on our website. friendshipquilterssd.org. The price for members is $45 and non-members $55. The pattern is free and Susie will be selling packages of batiks to use and also has a limited amount of free pieces. As of today there are two spots left so if you would like to attend please let me know! Feel free to text, email or call.

It was wonderful meeting and talking with everyone who stopped by the Library table at our September meeting.

We are heading into the holiday season of decorating and gifting, and it's a fun time to stop by the library table to spark your imagination for the Halloween, Thanksgiving, and (dare I mention it) Christmas sewing. When we come together in October, I will bring our holiday themed titles to help you find a great project for those fabric bundles just waiting to become quilts and other fun creations.

Member Marilyn Kirschen donated some wonderful books to the library: Dream Landscapes by Rose Hughes, Daddy's Ties by Shirley Botsford, Necktie Sampler Blocks by Janet B. Elwin, and Designing Tessellations by Jinny Beyer.

Members returned a number of books during the meeting, and I would like to remind members to check their bookshelves and sewing tables for any outstanding library books to return for some new inspiration.

Looking forward to seeing you at the Library table.

Nancy Kuelbs

Reminder: Our entire Library collection is online. You can call or e-mail me to request as many books as you would like to borrow—please let me know if you have any book requests!! Below are the step-by-step instructions for looking at all the books our guild owns:

Go To: FriendshipQuiltersSD.org

Click on "Activities" at top right

On drop down menu - Click "Library"

Click on "Friendship's Library on GoodReads"

This opens up the list of our newest 297 books

On the top left side of the page under "Bookshelves"

Click on: "ALL (820)" You will now see all the titles in our entire library.

Members, please take advantage of our large selection of wonderful quilting books available with you having to do nothing but look at the extensive book list on our website and request what tickles your fancy!

PHILANTHROPY

We had a wonderful day on Saturday September 17th creating several quilts.

These 2 quilts were created using the Slit N Sew method that will be demoed on our next meeting on October 10th. Once directions were followed, these pieces went together easily. No squaring up of the blocks was needed to put together!

The guild has a lot of activities in the month of October, so we will NOT be having any Sit and Sews. We will resume in November.

Sit and Sews on the First Friday of the Month and Third Saturday of the Month from 10 to 3 at

Quilters Paradise
304 Enterprise St
Escondido, CA 92029

OPPORTUNITY OF THE MONTH

Opportunity of the Month is a monthly fund-raiser for the guild and an opportunity to win a selection of fabric and to participate in a silent auction.

Bring your ones and fives — dollars, that is — to buy tickets.

Tickets are $1 each or $5 for 6 tickets

Purchase your tickets before the meeting or during the break. Write your full name legibly on the back of each ticket and put your tickets in each drawing cup that is associated with the bag you would like to win.

To bid on a silent auction item, place your bid on the bid sheet and be sure your bid is higher than the preceding bid.

Three winners of the opportunity baskets will be selected at the end of the meeting and winners must be present to win.

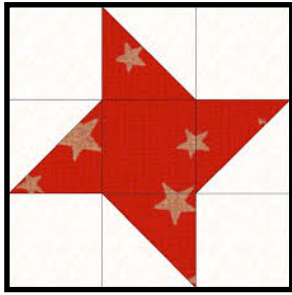

The prizes for the opportunity drawing will be a variety of fabrics, a quilt pattern, and possibly other small sewing or quilting items. Come to the Opportunity of the Month table, check out the drawing prizes, and buy your tickets that support the guild.

Join us in the 2022-2023 Quilt Challenge “A Day In the Life”

Join our New Annual Quilt Challenge! You will make an 11X14 wallhanging size quilt depicting the theme “A Day In The Life.” You can use any quilting style that you would like to use. Have fun with it. Be festive, silly, or serious. We will be giving each entrant a fat 8th of fabric. A piece of this fabric must be used somewhere in the quilt. The quilt must have a label and a sleeve. Quilts will be due at the February meeting. They will be displayed at the March meeting. Everyone will vote secretly for the winners. It is $7 to join the challenge to help pay for fabric and prizes. Your quilt will be returned to you in March. Please contact Karen Schwartz at friendshipquiltersinfo@gmail.com to sign up or see Karen at the Programs table.
