Incarnation Lutheran Church

Doors Open at 6:00 p.m.

Meeting Starts at 6:30 p.m.

Welcome to a New Year! Our January speaker is Carolina Moore. Carolina will be presenting her best-loved lecture My Favorite Notions. She is a local girl who lives in San Diego with her husband, two boys, and cat named Cupid.

Carolina loves having many projects in the works. She crafts, quilts, invents notions, designs patterns, owns an online retail business, and wins awards. One of her favorite things is to design quilt patterns and notions. In 2019 she designed the Spot on Dot, a set of magnifying lenses to help see the lines on rulers better. You can buy these and other notions she has created, as well as her own line of patterns, notions and quilt-themed gifts at www.CarolinaMoorePatterns.com.

Carolina is an Art Gallery Fabrics Sewcialite, an award winning quilter, a blogger for over ten-years, as well as a Babylock Ambassador. Carolina has a great sense of humor and owns a Babylock Jubilant named Saturday and a Babylock Aria named Sunday, which is how she gets away with saying she only sews on Saturday and Sunday!

You can join Carolina on Facebook at Always Expect Moore, The Quilt Party with Carolina Moore, YouTube, Pinterest, TikTok, and/or follow her on Instagram @craftmoore. Carolina also has a periodic newsletter where she shares projects and free patterns at <https://alwaysexpectmoore.com>.

President's Message

Laura Martin—President

Happy New Year!

I hope everyone has had a wonderful Holiday, full of family, friendship, and happiness. I know that last month many of you were hustling to get gifts finished. Hopefully, this month will find you with time to work on your own personal stuff. I want to be strong and say that I am going to spend my next year only working on UFO's and kits I have already purchased, but sometimes I just can't resist the new things I see.

I am really looking forward to the second half of our guild year. We have so much to offer with our many speakers, workshops, sit and sews, philanthropy, SWAPS, fat quarter exchanges, retreats, guild shop, and Sew Hungry. I think that we truly have something for everyone. If you have any ideas for something else, please come talk to me.

Remember that we are also liquidating our Library. You are invited to take home any books you would like for your own personal collection. There is a donation jar if you feel so inclined. I also want to encourage everyone to purchase and/or sell tickets for our Opportunity Quilt. This is the guild's major fundraiser. It helps us to bring in top notch speakers. Besides their speaking fee, we also have to pay for the speaker's transportation, lodging, and food. If you have an organization (i.e., shop, card group, book club, another quilt guild, senior center, church, etc.) where you can take the quilt to sell Opportunity Tickets, please see Colleen or Candy. As they say, It takes a village.

This month is also Road to California in Ontario. I hope you will get to go. I love seeing all of the quilts. So many people amaze me with their talent and the vendors are always fun. I am attending for five-days and taking a few classes. I hope to see you there!

In closing, I want to thank each and every one of you for being a vital part of Friendship Quilters. I receive many compliments on how warm and inviting everyone is at the guild. It makes me really proud!

In quilting and fun,

Laura

2024/2025 President

Laura Martin—President

I am writing to let everyone know that after the June 2024 meeting I will no longer be staying in the President position. I have absolutely loved being the President of Friendship Quilters and have enjoyed getting to know everyone better. I have been the President for two-years and before that I was President-Elect for one-year. According to our by-laws, a person should be President for no more than two years. Additionally, I am currently facing some health challenges that I must focus on. I will still be an active member of the guild and will take a smaller position on the board. With this being said, we need to find a new person to be President next year. We need to have this worked out by our March meeting. If you might be interested or if you have any questions please contact me. I look forward to finishing out this year with some wonderful speakers and activities! I hope to see everyone at the January meeting.

Fat Quarter Exchange

Sophia Browning—Chairperson

For our January meeting let's ring in the New Year with shiny, sparkly Metallics of any color or style. That means any swirls or sparkles, silver or gold, or anything else with those beautiful metallic accents. Bring a fat quarter (or two, or three!) to receive an entry for each fat quarter you bring and we will raffle off the fat quarters we collect at the meeting. See you there!

Happy New Year!! I hope that you have had time to work on your projects. If you were not able to get me your finished project for November, please come see me with the completed project at our next meeting to get credit for it. Our next official turn-in date is in February, so January is forgiveness month for those that need a little support.

Remember, you get two tickets for two different drawings when you complete your project on time. I will give you two tickets in January for any projects that were due in November that you just couldn't get it done and/or couldn't get to the meeting. Keep sewing and stay positive, I know you can JUST GET IT DONE!!

Friendship Quilters: March 2024 Loot Bag Exchange

For our next swap, we will be partnering together with a quilting friend to make and exchange Loot Bags. This deadline has been extended until March to allow time for quilters to sign up at the January meeting and to complete the pouch, as we have all been busy with holiday preparations.

Each participant will sew a zippered pouch (approximately 7-8" tall by 9-10" wide), fill it with a yard of a new quilt-store quality fabric, and include a favorite sewing/quilting tool, and share your favorite quilting tip.

You will be paired up with another guild member and after signups close, I will send you your partner's name and email address. You can talk together about your favorite colors (and any other quilty information about yourself), and you will bring your finished pouch to the March guild meeting for your guild partner.

There are many free patterns and tutorials online to help you with making the pouch. Moda Fabrics has sponsored a monthly pouch sew-along on their blog this year with free patterns. You can find it here: Moda Pouch Club

One of my favorites is Sotak Handmade on YouTube—she has a great video for shortening nylon zippers and making zipper tabs to give a really neat finish to your bag: How to Shorten a Zipper and add Fabric Tabs for a Professional Finish. I will send a few links once you have signed up. (Deadline: March's guild meeting).

To sign up and for any questions, please send email to: 5kuelbs5@gmail.com

Friendship Boutique

Pat Howell Schmidt—Chairperson

Hello Quilters! At our January meeting you will have an opportunity to pick up any of the unsold items you so generously donated for the Friendship Boutique in 2022. If you choose not to pick up or contact me that you want your items returned, the guild will use the items as prizes, raffles, etc., or we will donate to a worthy organization. With over $1,000 made, the board will use the funds to help provide a variety of needed items to keep our guild working smoothly. Thank you again for being so generous in your donations to help the Friendship Quilt Guild!

Library

Nancy Kuelbs—Library Chairperson

We will meet again at the library table in January as we continue to disperse the library inventory to members. Donations are welcome, but not required.

Friendship's Classified Ads

Please be sure to look at the last pages of the newsletter because that is where you will find the ads!

These ads are available to our members who have items they are looking to sell or rehome. As a member of Friendship Quilters of San Diego, this is the perfect place for you to list items you have decided to part with. The best news is that as a member, your listing is FREE!

The deadline to submit an ad is the 15th of each month. If I receive your information by that time, it will be included in the following month's newsletter. This is a great way to reach your fellow quilters and find a good and loving home for the items you have decided to part with.

Please send your listings by the 15th of the month to colleen.sandiego@gmail.com and your ad will be placed in the following month's newsletter.

Happy New Year!

Please join us on February 12, 2024, when Jenny Lyon will present her humorous lecture Quilting is a Contact Sport.

I ran into Jenny several times at the Houston International Quilt Show where she was teaching. Jenny is so fun, talented and down to earth.

Jenny is a C&T Author, award winning art quilter and garment maker, who has traveled the country teaching and lecturing since 2006. Jenny responded to requests and created a free motion quilt program for domestic machines.

On February 13, Jenny will be presenting her workshop The Julienne Pillow Cover. It is absolutely beautiful and I will have more information and a sample to display at our January meeting. She will be demonstrating sewing beads on by machine, sewing with metallic thread, and free motion quilting.

Friendship's 2023-2024 Opportunity Quilt WE NEED YOUR HELP!

In case you have not been to a guild meeting and seen this quilt in person, we are showing it to you here! Shades of Santorini, a pattern by Lamb and Buczynski, is the pattern used along with a beautiful blue ombre fabric. You must see it to believe it!

As we all know, our Opportunity Quilt is the guild's major fundraiser each year. We ask that each guild member help support the guild and buy some tickets!

Additionally, if you take this quilt to another group you belong to or have access to (i.e., shop, card group, book club, another quilt guild, senior center, church, etc.) your name will be entered into a drawing for a beautiful fabric bag, such as the one below.

Please also consider checking out a group of tickets to sell to your friends, family and co-workers. This will also qualify you for the drawing.

Contact Candy Mittag (candymmjwc@cox.net) or Colleen McCune (colleen.sandiego@gmail.com) and we will set you up with everything you need to show the quilt and/or sell tickets.

Thank you for supporting Friendship Quilters!
