Jean Impey

An Insider's Look at the Fabric Industry

January 13, 2025

Incarnation Lutheran Church
 16889 Espola Road
 Poway CA 92064

Doors Open at 6:00 p.m.

Meeting Starts at 6:30 p.m.

Please join us as Jean Impey takes us on a deep-dive into the fabric industry, including insights on batiks, flat printed, and digital fabrics, drawing from her experience with Hoffman Fabrics. Art has been an integral part of Jean's life since childhood. Intrigued and absorbed by the act of making things, she was encouraged by her mother to explore all things creative. This lifelong journey has included painting, sewing, photography, ceramics, embroidery, and gardening, reflecting her boundless passion for artistic discovery.

Jean's essence is defined by boundless style, unbridled passion, and inexhaustible energy. She thrives on the thrill of discovery, the beauty in observation, and the perspectives of others, embracing Albert Einstein's wisdom: "The easiest way to be creative is to try something different, even if doubt lingers." For Jean, there is no "doing it wrong"; creativity knows no boundaries.

Jean inspires others through her captivating lectures and provides rare insights into her work as a Hoffman Fabrics Ambassador and her curatorship of the Hoffman Challenge since 2016.

Jean's workshops cater to all skill levels, offering participants the tools and confidence to thrive in their quilting journeys. Her art has been featured in Quilting Arts Magazine, on Quilting Arts TV, and the Houston International Quilt Show and Empty Spools Seminars. Jean eagerly anticipates every opportunity to share her unique narrative, creative endeavors, and unwavering passion with others. Connect with her on her website www.SewJean.com and Facebook @SewJeanImpey

President's Message

Karla Seyb-Stockton—President

Happy New Year!

I hope you have had and are having a lovely holiday season regardless of what holiday you are celebrating. I hope you have made some time for family, for feasting, and for the holy awe and beauty of the season AS WELL AS time for quilting! I hope you got all your holiday projects done in time!

Enough looking back! Let's look forward!

It looks like 2025 is going to be a wild ride in our society and in our country. We might well need the comforts of beauty and quilting to calm anxious spirits and the warmth of our quilts to cope with a cold hard world. We will certainly need the celebration of diversity as piecers and appliqué-ers show the world how people with different priorities and gifts can get along just fine! On the other hand, quilters are not known for being minimalists. Most of us have a stash that has grown large, almost without us realizing it. Many of us have many projects started but sidetracked. Maybe this is the year for finishing what has been started, using what has already been acquired, and sharing what has been already made.

As for what I am looking forward to in the guild... I am looking forward to hearing from Jean Impey, our January speaker, giving us an insider's view of the fabric industry. Who knows what she will inspire! I am looking forward to the President's Challenge Books and Blocks coming up in February... any sized quilt featuring 'books and blocks' as you interpret it. It isn't a competition, but a celebration of the confluence of shared hobbies. It is not too late to put something together! Mine is in process, but certainly not done! And personally, I am making a commitment to a renewed focus on getting to our philanthropy sit and sews, as well as working on philanthropy projects I have lingering at home!

All that is a way of saying I have a lot to look forward to in the new year, and I hope you are as excited about it all as I am. Keep on quilting, friends. Enjoy the ride!

Blessings,

Karla

Quilter of the Month Spotlight: Candy Mittag

As your Editor, this month I am excited to introduce to you one of my dearest friends Candy Mittag and share with you the incredible person I am blessed to call part of my family. Candy's energy and passion is infectious. There is barely a minute of any day that passes where Candy is not involved in some part of a philanthropy project: either sorting through donations of fabric in her back room; working on construction of a quilt for one of the numerous organizations she donates to; or long-arming a beautiful quilt for one of the many philanthropy projects she supports. Candy has collected numerous gently-used sewing machines for Ukrainian refugees, helped to supply several quilting organizations with fabric for their own community projects, and is always there to help us all whenever we are in need. Most notable, with Candy having so many organizations she is involved in, she can always find a home for items donated. Nothing ever makes its way to our landfill! Every scrap of every donation goes to a new home, even the tiniest scraps becoming fill for dog beds supplied to the local shelter or as a last resort taken to Goodwill where they have a fabric recycling program.

Candy Mittag was born in Dayton, Ohio and is the oldest of five children. She met Larry, the love of her life, in eighth grade and they became inseparable. Candy and Larry married in their senior of college at Wright State University.

Candy's first sewing efforts were doll clothes for Troll Dolls and GI Joes. Her first quilt was a handsewn Grandmother's Flower Garden and she immediately decided there would be no more hand sewing and quilting for her and has stuck to machine piecing and quilting ever since. She is also an avid Machine Embroider after doing hand and manual machine embroidery before the advent of today's Machine Embroidery.

In 1984, Larry's job brought them to San Diego, California and they settled in Ramona where they live to this day. Even while working, Candy spent most every spare moment devoting time to various charities with her quilting endeavors. Today, Candy is involved as ever in the American Sewing Guild, Mira Mesa Women's Club, El Camino Quilt Guild, Back Country Quilters, and Friendship Quilt Guild.

At El Camino Quilt Guild, Candy is a co-chair of its Cuddle Quilt Program, the philanthropy arm of El Camino. Candy's energy truly comes in handy as she orchestrates, makes, and delivers literally hundreds of quilts, placemats, NICU blankets, burp cloths, and pillow cases to such organizations as: Elizabeth Hospice, Military Babies for Camp Pendleton, The Foundation for Women Warriors, San Pasqual Foster Academy, the Deaf Children's Camp, San Marcos Senior Center, and the Oceanside Senior Center.

Here at Friendship, Candy is a four year-term Past President; is currently a co-chair for Membership, and has worked on numerous opportunity quilts over the years.

Candy and her husband have traveled the world together. In their retirement, they are especially enjoying cruising and are looking forward to trips to New Zealand, Australia, Alaska, and joining many of us in May as we make our trip to Missouri Star.
