President's Message

Karla Seyb-Stockton—President

Hello friends!
As I write this, I realize I am sorely lacking in my fall decorations. I have one pumpkin candle out, and a fall table runner, and that is it! I need to get my pretty oranges and browns scattered around the house.

We had our first workshop of the program year with Gwen Weedon teaching "Ocean Art" and it was also the first time we held our workshop at Grand Central Quilt and Stitch in San Marcos. It was a nice sized space for our little group, though with Gwen wanting us each to have space to hang our batting design wall there were some challenges with that. I think most of us got the hang of her process by the end of the day and I am hoping for some great results at Show and Tell next month. I think we were a challenge for her, because it seemed many of us wanted to do our own variation of her design — making a mountain landscape instead of a seascape, or depicting a sunset snapped over La Jolla Cove while enjoying a celebration dinner, or making a night scape rather than a sunset. But she hung with us and helped us each accomplish our vision as well as learn her technique.

One thing to note: all three of our workshop spaces are now charging us a fee to have our workshops in their spaces. Apparently, not enough people are shopping there during the classes. (And the Creative Coop isn't a fabric store, so they have always charged). We haven't figured that into the budget in the past, so expect a change in the workshop fees for next year. At the same time, I will always encourage you to shop if you can when you are in a workshop. These store owners are depending on us just as we depend on them.

In November we'll have our Members Trunk Show so remember to bring a holiday quilt (any holiday will do) and be prepared to tell the story of that quilt. It doesn't have to be a quilt you made as long as you own it. Or if you made a quilt and gave it away and have access to borrow it back, it doesn't even have to be a quilt that you own!

And, if you weren't at the October meeting and didn't hear, instead of baseball cutting into my quilting time, I have doctors appointments taking up my time. I was diagnosed with stage 1 non-small cell lung cancer (the most common kind of lung cancer) and am being worked up for that. I will have surgery to remove it, and because they caught it so early, they don't think I will need any treatment besides the surgery, so it really is the best of a hard situation. I will do my level best to be able to not miss any meetings, but some of it is out of my hands. If you are the praying sort, please don't hesitate to say a prayer or two on my behalf, and feel free to add me to any prayer list you have access to. It is my prayer that this gets taken care of relatively soon, that I have a short, complete recovery time, and that in the end, it is a really good story to tell.

In the mean time, make every day count.
Blessings,
Karla

Programs

Jan Kosman—Chair

The program for our November 9th meeting will be one where everyone can participate. That is, every single person can participate.

The November program is a member trunk show of holiday quilts or any interesting quilted item.

The theme of holidays can include

Christmas	Hanukkah,
Kwanzaa	Valentine's Day
Veteran's Day	St. Patrick's Day
Fourth of July	Easter
Thanksgiving
your birthday,
your anniversary
your grandchild's first day of school.

You get the idea. You name it, and it' a holiday to celebrate with a quilt.

Bring one or two quilts to share and to tell a brief story about the quilt. To keep the meeting ending on time, we are requesting a two-quilt maximum.

You might want to take lots of pictures because this will be a beautiful quilt show.

Featherweight Sit-n-Sew

Sue Busch—Chair

Welcome to the new year of our quilt guild! I would like to invite you all to our Sit n Sew for Featherweight enthusiasts. However, if you want to sit and sew with us and don't have a Featherweight we don't discriminate. Please join us for a fun day at Paradise Sewing. They are so gracious to host us each month. Our meetings take place on the first Wednesday of each month at Paradise Sewing in Poway. We begin at 10:00 am and stay until 3:00 pm, and boy does the day go by fast with all of the sharing, talking and sewing. The shop requests a $10 payment from each person for the day. It is a small way of supporting our local shop, and we are blessed to have it. Our next meeting is November 4th, and I hope to see you there.

Philanthropy

Hope Campbell — Acting Chair

Shoreline Community Services is a non-profit organization that supports unhoused people. The following is from their website. I have arranged to deliver 6 throw, lap, or twin size quilts to the organization in mid December. These quilts will come from the guild.

Shoreline Community Services

What We Do

We are creating an interdependent community aligned with a common goal — a thriving, safe and welcoming neighborhood for everyone!Our current focus is addressing the unmet needs of unsheltered individuals and families in the Central Beach Area of San Diego – making sure the most vulnerable are cared for with compassion and equity through the efforts of Community Members and Community Partners.

Residents have access to showers and toilets elsewhere near by. These cabins hold a twin-size bed, a chair, small lamp, electrical outlets, and a few other amenities. The donated quilts will belong to them and will go with them when they move to permanent housing.

There are only 6 cabins. The director, Caryn Blanton would like the first delivery to include all residents.

Quilty Pleasures

Gloria Mauno — Committee Chair

Quilty Pleasures meets the first Tuesday of the month at The Creative Coop in Ramona from 10:100 am till 3;00 pm. The cost is $15 and helps support our group.

Come join us as we sew the day away. You'll each have your own five foot table, a great size cutting table, design walls, and irons. The best part is right next door is My Happy Place Quilt Shop just waiting to make you happy!

Our first Bake Sale was a success! Thank you to everyone who baked and ate! The responses I heard were all positive, and compliments were flying. Please continue to help make this a profitable event for our guild. You're again welcome to bring your baked items and goodies to our upcoming November meeting. I'm thinking of bringing a couple loaves of homemade sourdough!

Just Get It Done

Peggy Castor — Chair

We will continue with the program as Sue and Melinda led last year with perhaps a few minor changes…

To begin, take inventory of your unfinished projects (or things you haven't started but need extra motivation for) and prioritize 4 that you want to finish this year… If you have more, all the better, you can bring them in for extra chances to win prizes. Your inventory and $10 is due At the October meeting or at the latest by the November meeting. Use your own list pick up one to help you stay on track. I didn't have the forms ready at the September meeting, having just decided to take over the program. I plan to email the documents to the few people who already signed up and paid. I will have the forms at the October meeting. It was extremely helpful to me last year and I managed to finish more projects than I had expected. Fill out the registration form to enroll in the "Just Get It Done" program and bring it to the October or November meeting.

Bring me your completed Just Get It Done (UFO) list and get a ticket for a special drawing at the end of the November meeting. To enroll, fill out your registration form, pay $10.00, and pick up a tracking document to help keep you organized.

November to May Meetings ~ Bring your completed quilt projects to the meetings and get your tickets for the final drawings in June. We will photograph your completed project for the newsletter.

There are five projects, one will be a philanthropy project. They will be due November, February, March and May meetings. You can do all or some of your projects. Anything you finish that is something you can give as a gift or keep for yourself—But it will be OFF of YOUR UFO SHELF/or out of the DRAWER or container in which it currently resides.

I look forward to seeing your beautiful completed projects up close.

Let's have some fun and get out some of those "in progress" projects; forgotten unloved projects or those you started in a class and got too busy to complete when the class was over… Pull them out, take a fresh look at them and if you can't get excited about finishing them, try something different. It doesn't have to be what the pattern said. Change it up!

Feel free to consult with someone at the meeting. Even someone you don't know… make a new friend… (I like to pretend I just got them as a Round Robin and I have to add something to complement the design. Sometimes that's all it takes to give you a boost toward finishing it. Turn them on point and add corners. Consider adding pieced borders. If they are blocks that are not sewn together and they don't excite you, consider adding an alternate B block interspersed between your blocks for a different look. Bring them in to get ideas from some of our fellow quilters on what they think… Often, someone else can suggest something that might rejuvenate you and help you push through to the finish line….
